By a 2/3 vote, Convention agreed to hear a resolution honoring the Rt. Rev. Desmond Tutu, which was unanimously adopted by standing vote.

WHEREAS, the Rt. Rev. Desmond Tutu, Secretary General of the South African Council of Churches, has in his life and ministry been a constant witness to truth, justice and peace, and

WHEREAS, Bishop Tutu, as recently as our Bicentennial Celebration in May of this year, shared his vision with us in this Diocese as we attempt to Rejoice, Review and Renew our ministry and witness, and

THE ADMINISTRATIVE FUNCTION

The Rev. Maurice A. Coombs for the Commission on Clergy Salaries and Pensions moved the following resolutions which were adopted with an amendment to R-5:

R-5: RESOLUTION: SALARIES, FULL-TIME EMPLOYMENT

RESOLVED, that the policy of relating cash salary ranges (exclusive of housing and utility allowances) to a level approximately 30% below the average of cash salary practices for non-profit organizations to be continued, with the range midpoint continuing to be the appropriate salary for a thoroughtly competent incumbent of significant tenure, and that range midpoints to become effective January 1, 1985 shall be:

| Responsibility Level of Position | Key Definition | Current 1984 Midpoint | Cash Salary Midpoint Effective 1/1/85 |
|---|---|---|---|
| A | Intern | $17,100 | $17,955 |
| B | Curate | 18,800 | 19,740 |
| C | Rector/Vicar Small Parish | 22,000 | 23,100 |
| D | Rector/Vicar Medium Parish | 24,400 | 25,620 |
| E | " " Medium-Large Parish | 28,600 | 30,030 |
| F | " " Large Parish | 31,900 | 33,495 |
| G | " " Very Large Parish | 35,700 | 37,485 |

RESOLVED FURTHER: That ranges shall continue to extend 22.5% above and below the midpoint, so that for each range the Minimum shall be 77.5% of the Midpoint, and the Maximum shall be 122.5% of the Midpoint.

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: That the Commission on Clergy Salaries and Pensions is directed to present to the 202nd Convention in 1985 additional responsibility levels including criteria other than the size of congregation and budget for inner-city and other specialized ministries as represented in DCMM.

R-6: RESOLUTION: COMPENSATING PART-TIME EMPLOYMENT

RESOLVED, That 1985 guidelines for compensating clergy for supply work, interim assignments and part-time work shall be established, as follows:

| | Sunday Supply One Service | Sunday Supply One Full Day | Interim or Part-Time, Per Day |
|---|---|---|---|
| Minimum | $53 | $68 | $89 |
| Usual Range | $58 to $100 | $74 to $126 | $100 to $168 |
| Maximum | $110 | $147 | $189 |

RESOLVED FURTHER: That Interim or Part-time arrangements shall include, in addition to cash salaries, pro-rata payments (paid directly to the Carrier and/or Fund) for Church Pension Fund assessments and premiums for medical/hospitalization insurance, unless they are waived or covered in some other way.

Explanation
This resolution continues guidelines applied by the Commission on Clergy Salaries and Pensions for several years and formally adopted at the 200th Convention. The dollar amounts for 1985 are pro-rated from the full-time structure submitted in a separate resolution, reflecting a 5 percent increase over 1984, rounded to the nearest dollar.

A parish is obligated to pay Church Pension Fund assessments for any of the clergy who are employed for three months or more and earn $50 or more per month, unless already on pension.

R-7: RESOLUTION: ALLOWANCES AND EXPENSES

RESOLVED: That previous Convention resolutions on allowances and reimbursements for "Business related" expenses be reaffirmed, as follows:

Unless church-furnished housing and utilities are provided, an adequate allowance shall be provided to cover the cost of appropriate housing, including utilities, which in no case should be less than 30% of cash salary.

All "business" expenses, e.g., those expenses which would routinely be reimbursed in secular employment, shall be reimbursed (and provided for in adequate allowances in parish budgets).

Where personal autos are used, the automobile allowance should be either:

(1) the Internal Revenue Service published standard (which currently is a mileage allowance relating to miles of use), plus reimbursement of tolls and parking fees, or

(2) a budgeted monthly allowance designed to cover the actual cost of automobile operations.

Explanation
There seems to be a continuing need to emphasize the importance of an appropriate, competitive cash salary plus appropriate, adequate allowances and/or reimbursement of "reasonable and necessary" expenses incurred in conduct of the parish and clergy affairs.

R-8: RESOLUTION: ASSESSMENT

RESOLVED: That the Clergy Financial Assistance Assessment be maintained at the 1984 lever of $40,000 for 1985.

Explanation
This assessment was increased in 1983 from $20,000 to $50,000 to meet the increasing drain on existing funds. In 1983 the needs stabilized at a somewhat lower level than expected. The lower figure was adequate for 1984 and seems adequate for 1985.

R-10: RESOLUTION ON SANCTUARY

RESOLVED, that the 201st Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania

1. Commends Tabernacle Church (Presbyterian/United Church of Christ) and First United Methodist Church of Germantown for establishing sanctuary for political refugees from El Salvador and Guatemala.

2. Urges the congregations of the Diocees of Pennsylvania to support their work as appropriate by gifts of money, food, clothing and by inviting the refugees to meet with them or their committees on mission.

3. Encourages all parishes and missions to study the plight of poligical refugees as recommended by the 200th Annual Convention of the Diocese and prayerfully consider the establishment of sanctuary in their own parishes.

Reasons Pro

1. When the operation of death squads and disappearances of people in Central America are widely reported in the press, church people have an obligation to consider their appropriate response.
2. The establishment by two local churches of sanctuary programs provides opportunity for Episcopal parishes considering such action to benefit from the experience of others. It also makes available persons who can provide first-hand information about the conditions in two of the countries involved.

Reasons Con

1. It is apparently against Administration policy to categorize refugees from Central America as political refugees entitled to asylum.
2. Many church members would prefer not to participate in an act of disobedience.

This inventory, to be carried out through normal channels of information and communication, will tally the numbers of members of each of the major racial/ethnic groups (Black, Asian, Hispanic, Native American, White, Other) listed in each of our major organizational entities: Parish, Deanery and Diocesan structures, including demographic information from neighborhoods surrounding our parishes and this section of the country as a whole.

Explanation: The purpose of this inventory is to provide a basis for informed planning of a Diocesan program of education and action to eradicate institutional racism from our corporate life.

R-12(Revised): RESOLUTION ON THE HOMELESS

RESOLVED, that this Convention urge and exhort the people of this diocese prayerfully to consider, study and seek ways and means to help and respond to the needs of the homeless, and be it

FURTHER RESOLVED that this Diocesan Convention urge the people of this diocese to participate in and attend the special symposium on the homeless to be held on Sunday, November 11, 1984, 1:00 - 4:00 p.m. at the Church of the Saviour.

Explanation: The number of the homeless certainly has increased dramatically throughout the nation, and especially in cities. The cities of this diocese have seen a tremendous growth in the size of the homeless population at a time when resources to respond to the needs of these people are few.

As a Christian community we are called upon to feed the hungry, clothe the naked, visit the sick, comfort the captives and shelter the homeless. The November 11 symposium will equip people in our congregations with increased awareness of the size of the problem, and offer some suggestions for ways to respond.

APPENDIX # 9:

201ST CONVENTION

THE CHURCH FOUNDATION REPORT

It would appear from the inquiries received over a period of time that there may be some misunderstanding or lack of information as to what the Foundation is and what it does, so I would like to explain - briefly - for the benefit of those who may not know.

The Foundation is the corporate trustee of the Diocese designated by Convention in 1927 to hold and administer real and personal property in trust for the Diocese, its parishes and missions and other church-related institutions.

It is a service organization supporting the work of the Episcopal Church in this Diocese, concerned primarily with investments and real estate matters. It manages a broadly diversified common fund, known as the Consolidated Fund, in which more than 300 Diocesan and Church funds participate and it holds title to, or interests in, more than 100 pieces of real estate.

The current value of the Consolidated Fund is about $30.3 million, the estimated annual income is approximately $2.2 million and the return is presently about 7%. The Fund is invested in the approximate ratio of one-third bonds and two-thirds stocks. The former produce a high and stable source of income and the latter a chance for substantial capital appreciation.

Since many of the participating funds represent permanent endowments of one kind or another, the emphasis has been on long-term investment and the basic policies of the Investment Committee are protection and growth of principal and an increase in the amount of distributable income each year. I am pleased to report that the results this year show record high levels in almost every category, partly because of strong security markets and partly as a result of very substantial net new additions to the Fund.

A word about real estate matters. Over the years, the Foundation has been involved in almost every kind of transaction one can imagine - purchases, sales, leases, mortgages, condemnations, zoning hearings, subdivisions, surveys and legal proceedings. The Foundation has even been involved in bringing eviction proceedings to regain possession of its property. It is time consuming and frustrating but the experience gained has been very helpful to the Diocese and to quite a few parishes and missior

I would like to mention one other fact. The records of The Church Foundation form an important part of the Diocesan archives. They very often shed light on the history of congregations which are no longer in existence as well as other matters and we are making efforts to see that these records will be preserved.

Respectfully submitted,

Geoffrey Stengel
Executive Vice-President

APPENDIX #10:

RE-1: RENEWAL, EVANGELIZATION AND CHURCH GROWTH

To be the Church is to grow, evangelize, and renew. When this happens, as we believe it is happening in the Diocese of Pennsylvania, all other programs of the Church prosper as well.

One statistic speaks volumes. For 20 years, this Diocese, like much of the Church, was in a serious decline. There are many reasons for this. But the trend, thank God, has slowed dramatically in recent years. Still, the national Episcopal Church experienced another loss last year of just under 1 percent. Our Diocese alone, in this older, urban, industrialized part of our nation, experienced a 5 percent growth. There are many causes for this including the binding up of old wounds and the vision and leadership of many people. A large part of the turnaround is due to the work in this Diocese in the area of renewal/evangelization/and church growth.

This work includes the support of Mr. William Paddock. He is a tireless worker who has faithfully served this Diocese. He is constantly working with this committee to enhance the effectiveness of his own work. He works directly under the supervision of the Bishop in areas of crisis management, vestry retreats, and lay training in evangelism.

It is our plan to continue the work of encouraging personal, parochial, and clerical renewal and evangelization leading toward parish growth. It is our intent to continue to equip as fully as possible all clergy and congregations for the work of renewal and evangelization, to increase the presence and witness of the Episcopal Church in the urban areas of the Diocese, and to assist in the development of plans for new congregations. We plan to continue this work through Diocesan wide conferences, training, and preaching missions to parishes and encouragement and consultation to clergy.

Finally a word of appreciation must go to the Rev. Dr. J. Robert Zimmerman, who for two years served as chair of this committee. Bob reluctantly found it necessary to resign for personal reasons. His leadership in forming this committee and giving direction to its work forms a lasting foundation upon which to build the future work of renewal/evangelization/and church growth.

APPENDIX #11:

RE-9: OUR BICENTENNIAL. A YEAR OF REJOICING, REVIEW AND RENEWAL

In 1982, Bishop Ogilby and the Standing Committee appointed a sub-committee to consider what kind of recognition should be made of the 200th anniversary of the Diocese of Pennsylvania. As a consequence of discussions with laity and clergy, an observance was initiated that would strengthen the Diocese and could be accomplished at no cost to the Diocese.

The Bicentennial Committee was then enlarged to include men and women with expertise in church history, liturgy, fund raising, women's and minority issues, administration, music, special events, and public relations. One of their first projects was to decide the objective of the Bicentennial in order to govern the rest of the decisions to be made. Together, they summed up its purpose: "In a joyous public celebration of our Bicentennial, we will review the past and inspire Episcopalians with a sense of community, purpose, and achievement. Such a celebration will lead us to recognize and act upon the challenges of the future." From this statement came the motto: "Rejoice, Review, Renew."

It was decided that the Bicentennial Year begin on Oct. 21, 1983 at the 200th Convention of the Diocese, with its focus being May, 1984, since it was on May 24, 1784, that the first meeting was held to form the Diocese of Pennsylvania. Two major events for May evolved: a comprehensive exhibition of the history of the Diocese, and a major service of celebration.

Under the joint chairmanship of the Rev. Frank T. Griswold, III, and his wife Phoebe, the exhibition was planned with the theme of "Our Common Prayer." It focused on the changes in The Book of Common Prayer and how these were reflected in our worship from colonial times to the present. The U.S. National Park Service generously lent the use of the historic First Bank of the United States for the month of May. Teams of volunteers put together a comprehensive exhibition, published a guidebook updating the history of the Diocese, and a church school curriculum, and sponsored a free walking tour of the historic area of Philadelphia. Bicentennial ties, scarves, stationery, and prints were also made available. Best estimates based on past experience were that 4,000 people would visit the exhibition. The actual final count was 7,281, almost double the estimates!

The service of celebration was under the direction of the Rev. Herbert E. Rowe. Two outstanding speakers accepted our invitation: The Rt. Rev. Desmond Tutu, Secretary General of the South African Council of Churches, and the Rev. Dr. Herbert O'Driscoll, former Warden of the College of Preachers.

Originally scheduled for the Academy of Music, this service was moved to Convention Hall, Philadelphia, where everyone who might want to attend could be accommodated. On May 16, the evening of the service, over 6,500 people crowded into the auditorium to witness a glorious service of celebration with a procession of Episcopal and ecumenical leaders and over 200 acolytes. The inspiring music, which included a new Te Deum by Dr. Eugene Hancock, was performed by a choir of 300 with organ and brass. Records and tapes of this music are now available.

In addition to these activities, every deanery, congregation, and related Episcopal organization was encouraged to have an event, or series of events commemorating the Bicentennial. Diocesan News included special features such as a photo spread about the staff of Church House, monthly articles from different deaneries, and calendars of events of activities throughout the Diocese. The calendars were reprinted and given wide distribution.

Other Diocesan activities which were enthusiastically attended included a Men and Boys Choir Festival conducted by Dr. Lionel Dakers at St. Luke's, Germantown, in November, and EPIS-ZOO-PALIAN Day. This "birthday party" was held at the end of March at the Philadelphia Zoo as a program of the Diocesan Family Life Ministry.

In the spirit of renewal, Bishop Ogilby has issued a challenge to all congregations to look at their past results and make concrete plans for the future. These plans will be offered at the 201st Convention.

One of the final events of the Year is the Junior Choir Festival for hundreds of boys and girls scheduled Saturday, October 27, at 3;30 P.M., at Christ Chapel on the campus of Episcopal Academy.

For years to come, the Bicentennial will be visually recalled by a beautiful seven-foot square tapestry incorporating 169 small squares stitched by over 200 volunteers from congregations throughout the Diocese. This tapestry is available for loan and display to any church-related group, and serves as a tangible symbol of our togetherness.

Members of the Bicentennial Committee; the Rt. Rev. Lyman C. Ogilby, Chairman William White, Bicentennial Director Clifford C. R. Hood, Bicentennial Coordinator Nancy Ritter, Samuel H. Ballam, Jr., Fitz Eugene Dixon, Jr., Ruth Fiesel, Elizabeth J. Forrester, Bruce C. Gill, Carolyn Langfitt, Janette S. Pierce, John Rettew, William A. Riley, the Rev. F. Lee Richards, the Rev. Herbert E. Rowe, Geoffrey Stengel, Peter Wilmerding.

APPENDIX #12:

BISHOP'S ADDRESS
The Rt. Rev. Lyman C. Ogilby

201st Annual Convention, October 19-20, 1984

MISSION: PENNSYLVANIA POSSIBLE

"...united in one body by the one Spirit, that the world may believe in him whom you have sent, your Son Jesus Christ our Lord..."

- A rich and productive diversity...a wonderful unity of one Body, one Spirit, one hope in God's call...one Lord, faith, baptism -

* * * * * * * * * * *

These words diversity and unity have become a treasured slogan for many of us. Standing within the Anglican Communion and in the Episcopal Church, here in the Diocese of Pennsylvania, we value our diversity, held together by our unity. Lots of diversity -- yet a unity. Without spelling out or identifying all that we mean by diversity in Christian mission and ministry, we must raise the question of how much diversity can or should we have to make the unity real, visible, and viable. And further, we must look at unity - not as an end or objective for Christ's mission -- but as a means to the goal of making him, God in Jesus Christ, known so that the world may believe, may know God in Jesus Christ and His hope for reconciling the world.

The Diocese of Pennsylvania -- 172 congregations, 86,000 people, several institutions and church related institutes, and a major social service agency here in the 5-county area of S.E. Pennsylvania -- represents a great diversity, and variety of people and places, and religious experience. Differences we have in the Delaware Valley -- labeled ethnic, social, linguistic, educational, economic -- in our congregations, in our neighborhoods, in towns and cities. The varieties of religious experience -- worship and witness -- just in our Christian family alone, are legion and reflect the length and breadth of Anglicanism. Sometimes this diversity appears to be so great, one wonders if there is a unity to our church life. Where is the unity, the commonality, the centrality which we treasure and celebrate?

An entity may essentially be defined in two ways. One way: by its borders, its boundaries, its perimeter. Sometimes it is difficult to locate or determine these boundary lines, which cause confusion and territorial arguments. Depending upon definitions and geography, these lines of demarcation will determine who or what is included or excluded. Another way to define a reality: by its center, and how close to or far from this central point or person will establish the locus. The Church of God is an entity which is properly described by its center. It is impossible to define exactly the boundaries of the Church, and the attempt to do so always ends in an unevangelical legalism. We know exactly who the center is for the Church, and as Christians where our focus must be: God - Father, Son, Holy Spirit. And the Church of God in His community, and is described as the Body of which Jesus Christ is the Head and of which all baptized persons are members. These baptized persons are the ministers of the Church -- lay persons, deacons, priests, bishops. The ministry of all these ministers is to represent Christ and his Church and to carry on Christ's work of reconciliation in the world. It is the duty of all these ministers to follow Christ; to come together week by week for corporate worship; and to work, pray, and give for the spread of the Kingdom of God.

In a portion of the Church of God, we call a diocese where all these ministries are represented and present -- bishop, priest, deacon, lay person, that is the complete local church -- we recognize that the bishop has a particular ministry as apostle, chief priest and pastor with the responsibility of guarding the faith, unity, and discipline of the whole Church. The Bishop proclaims the Word of God and acts in Christ's name for the reconciliation of the world, builds up the Church, and ordains others to continue Christ's ministry.

I have said many times before that Lyman Ogilby, a sinner in the process of redemption, bishop in the Church of God, cannot, by himself, possibly be this minister or carry out this Episcopal ministry in the Diocese of Pennsylvania, appropriately, adequately, extensively. I need assistance and support, advice and encouragement, from many sources, chiefly from God in Jesus Christ and from many of His ministers. But specifically, at this time and for the immediate future, we need another person in episcopal orders, another full-time bishop, and I have decided that the next bishop to be elected by this diocese should be the one to succeed me when I retire about 3 years from now. That means a bishop coadjutor.

But as we initiate the appropriate canonical process during the next few months for the election of this bishop coadjutor, gaining the required permissions, we must be very clear about what we are asking and expecting this bishop to be and do here in this diocese. We should have a good comprehensive and realistic photograph of the mission and ministry of this diocese as it is now and what it should be for the coming decade. Details as to how this diocesan profile is to be completed will be forthcoming, but this is an essential part of the process for a responsible election in the Church of God, for a bishop of Pennsylvania, one who can truly lead us with all our diversities in the unity of the Spirit of God.

A year ago at our Convention, when we initiated our Bicentennial celebration, I began the process, charging every congregation to enrich and expand its Christian life in three essential and mutually interrelated elements of Church: worship, evangelism, social action. These are the words I used:

> "I call upon every congregation and its members this 200th year to address these three components of church, taking definite and intentional steps towards this goal:
> 1. Worship - to enhance our worship, to learn more about the holy scriptures and sacraments, the creeds, and Christian history, doctrine, and spirituality, so that we may be better informed and more disciplined Christians. I charge every congregation to participate in at least one new and additional learning experience or event this year in this area.
> 2. Evangelism - to bring the good news of Jesus Christ to those in our communities who are not yet members of his body or who have forgotten or fallen away from Church participation, so that every congregation may grow in membership by 10% and also correspondingly grow in our comprehension of Christian stewardship.
> 3. Social Action - to initiate or increase our involvement in social action, by direct personal participation and financial support, for Christian service in our local communities, in our diocese, and in the national church, strengthening these ministries which bring food to the hungry, health to the sick, and peace and justice to all. I charge every congregation to take on at least one new or additional social service activity or program during the course of this year."

The responses from the congregations to this charge this past year -- in written, summary form -- will be received at the time of the offertory and presented at the altar.

It is clear that this trilogy of worship, evangelism, and social action is a re-phrasing of the Prayer Book dictum: the Church pursues its mission as it prays and worships, proclaims the Gospel, and promotes justice, peace and love.

This is the mandate and the blue-print for our mission here in the Diocese of Pennsylvania. How are we doing with this mission in our congregations, deaneries and diocese? We must be quick to say that measuring or grading our faithfulness to Christ's mission is an impossible and inappropriate endeavor, as only God can be the judge of that. But the bishop does have a representative role here as guardian of that faith, unity, and discipline of the whole Church. And the bishop does have the responsibility and privilege of visiting every congregation, agency, and institution, personally sharing Christ's ministry with all the ministers, ordained and lay, in the diocese. I trust my comments will be helpful.

1. Prayer and Worship: There is no question in my mind that we have some splendid resources in our diocese to help us individually and in our congregations with this primary activity of our Chrsitian mission, such as the Spiritual Growth Committee, the Worship Commission, the Ecumenical Commission, the Philadelphia Theological Institute, and the many learning opportunities offered by the universities and seminaries in our region. And surely our 1979 Prayer Book is one of the most comprehensive and inclusive prayer books in the Anglican Communion and is much admired by Christians of other traditions. The book itself is a principle guide for our spiritual growth and the liturgies of the Church. But there are still a few congregations in our diocese whose comprehensive use of this book has been minimal. I am sure their present faithfulness to Christ's mission, as we Anglicans understand it, is correspondingly compromised.

2. Gospel Proclamation: making known by word and deed the good news, the evangel, that God in Jesus Christ is here in the world bringing His love and life to all and that we might have it more abundantly. We Christians can rightly say that the Incarnate Lord, Jesus Christ, by his life, death, and resurrection is the gospel and is the bearer of the gospel. We, as His body, share this evangel by who we are and by what we do, and by what we do authenticates who we are.

It is very apparent that there continues to be tension between those on the one hand who see their faith as essentially concerned with the life of the spirit and regard the 'politicization of Christianity' as a grave deviation from the truth and those on the other hand who regard a purely private and 'spiritual' religion as a betrayal of the biblical revelation. We are talking about GOSPEL, the whole gospel -- word and deed, faith and works. The faithful proclamation of the gospel, the reign of God, is surely something which concerns the whole of life, and all the world.

Again, as long as this tension, even cleavage, exists in our Christian community, mistrust abounds and our mission is crippled.

3. The Promotion of justice, peace, and love: There is no question that Jesus, in his well known declaration in the Nazareth synagogue, calls us to minister to the world's ills -- the poor, the sick, the halt and blind, the prisoners and captives. But his manifesto goes behind and beyond all this misery, oppression, and injustice to its roots, sources, and causes. We cannot escape the realities of our world -- a global world -- the nuclear arms race, the growing number of refugees, hunger at home and abroad, the widening gap between the rich and poor, and the powder kegs of Central America, the Middle East, and South Africa. From the time of the Hebrew prophets to the Nazareth manifesto of proclaiming the acceptable year of the Lord, the mission of God's people has always been one of summoning the nations to God's justice, peace, and love, shalom. And surely in this cause, we must continue to expand, enrich, and enhance our ecumenical and inter-religious relationships and commitments if our mission is going to be valid and effective.

Mission is prayer and worship; gospel proclamation; and the promotion of justice, peace, and love. That is mission here in the Diocese of Pennsylvania. How do we by God's grace and in the power and presence of the Holy Spirit respond to the subject, author, and source of this mission, Jesus Christ, and bring his reconciling love to our world here in this diocese? What do the people of this diocese say to that question? This is the how of mission.

My guess is that tonight, my announcement of initiating the process leading to the election of a bishop coadjutor really started the juices running. One of the quickest ways to get the attention of Episcoplians is to talk about the election or selection of their bishop. I know because I have done it twice before tonight -- in the Philippines and in South Dakota. That is not too surprising considering the name we bear; "episkope" is what we've got! But, I want this process to be positive and unifying in the spirit of our Bicentennial -- rejoicing, reviewing, renewing. We must use this time of preparation to assess and evaluate our current mission, clearly identifying the style of episcopal leadership required to move us to the mission we must assume in the years ahead, in the name and for the sake of Jesus Christ, our Lord and Saviour. This is the primary reason that has moved me to make this announcement tonight.

I claim to be a missionary. A missionary must discern the signs of the times -- God's time, kairos . A time to come, a time to go. This is the time.

APPENDIX #14:

REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE

At the first stated meeting after the 200th Annual Convention of the Diocese the Standing Committee received a Certificate of Election from the Secretary of Convention confirming the election of the Rev. Charles L. Poindexter as a new member and the re-election of Mrs. Mary Jane Baker, both for five-year terms. The Rev. James A. Trimble was re-elected President of the Committee and Duffield Ashmead, III was re-elected as Committee Secretary.

During the period of this report the Committee approved the election of one Diocesan Bishop and seven Bishops Coadjutor. It also approved the calling of elections for four Bishops Suffragan and four Bishops Coadjutor. During the same period of time the Committee approved many applications for candidacy as well as seven ordinations to the priesthood and four ordinations to the Diaconate. One application for ordination under Title III Canon 12 (relating to ministers ordained in churches not in communion with this church) was rejected and one was approved. The Committee certified to the Bishop one clergyman as having abandoned the communion of this church under Title IV Canon 10.

The Committee continued to deal with a very substantial number of trust and estates matters including most prominently the Sayers Funds which together total almost $5,000,000. One outgrowth of this activity has been the creation of a subcommittee to be known as the Mission Endowment Committee to oversee the allocation of endowment funds which, under the Canons, are the express responsibility of the Bishop and the Standing Committee.

Once again the Committee's time has been taken up with a very large number of real estate concerns ranging from relatively routine matters involving requests by parishes to sell property for various reasons to some very intricate and involved matters. One of these involved the conveyance of the old church property at Marcus Hook to the Marcus Hook Development Corporation under which the community will undertake to preserve the edifice and the graveyard as an historic landmark. Another rather complicated matter involved the property formerly used by St. Matthew's Church, Francisville, which had been purchased by a small non-Episcopal congregation that proved eventually to have no ability to satisfy the mortgage. It has been sold to St. Joseph's Preparatory School on terms that are satisfactory to both the Diocese and to the parish that had been using the building. The Committee has been helped immeasurably in these matters by the yeoman efforts of Mr. Geoffrey Stengel who, in his capacity as Executive Vice-President of the Church Foundation, engineered the final arrangements in both of these as well as other transactions.

All parishes are cautioned once again that it is extremely important before an agreement has been made for a sale of real estate to ascertain who has the title and whether there are any restrictions or conditions which relate to the property. In all cases legal advice should be sought prior to making any binding commitments. The custom has continued to require that a tithe of any proceeds from the sale of property should be contributed to the Diocese in accordance with the Bishop's memorandum dated September 10, 1976. Only in extraordinary circumstances will this requirement be waived.

The Committee continued to follow the saga of Rittenhouse Square which is now in litigation between the bank lenders and the developer. The Committee is very much aware of the dilemna that this poses for the Diocese insofar as the location of Diocesan Headquarters is concerned.

The Committee appointed to supervise the Diocesan Bicentennial Celebration continued to report from time to time to the Standing Committee, and we think that everyone would agree that the efforts of that Committee resulted in an extremely successful series of events.

Pursuant to the request of the Bicentennial Committee of the Diocese, the President of the Standing Committee has appointed a committee to oversee the cataloging of the archives of the Diocese. This committee has also been charged with the additional responsibility of investigating the record managmenet for the Diocese and finding a permanent housing for the archives. It is anticipated that endowment funds will be allocated for this purpose.

As a part of its canonical responsibilities the Standing Committee determined the budget for the Episcopal function for 1984. The Committee also approved nominations to the governing bodies of various organizations relating to the Diocese, including Episcopal Community Services and Cathedral Village.

The Bishop attended all of the stated meetings of the Committee and has consulted with it on the usual variety of matters. Also attending most of the meetings were Mr. Peter Wilmerding as Controller of the Diocese and Geoffrey Stengel as Executive Vice-President of the Church Foundation. Other resource persons have appeared from time to time to inform the Committee on specific issues. Instances which come immediately to mind were the Rev. Gilbert Avery and Mr. Howard Quader of the Presiding Bishop's staff who described the mechanics of sponsoring projects financed by HUD. Also, the Rev. Ronald Reed educated the Committee on the entire process of postulancy, candidacy and ordination.

Committee meetings are normally held in the offices of the Diocese on the fourth Tuesday of each month with the exception of July and August. Persons who wish to attend on a particular matter are welcome but it is requested that the Committee be given advance notice so that a proper agenda can be prepared.

Respectfully submitted,
Duffield Ashmead, III
Secretary

APPENDIX #15: EPISCOPAL CHURCH WOMEN

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Mrs. Karey B. Smith May, 1984

How wonderful, as Episcopal Churchwomen to be actively involved during this Bicentennial year of our Diocese. As we pause and reflect on the total program of experiences and responsibilities of our ministries, we give all the Glory to our Father, God, who crowned our many efforts during this calendar year, with success.

Our participation has been meaningful and stimulating, as our program unfolded, that this year passed swiftly, almost too quickly for realization. Where has the time gone?

Early in the Fall a Leadership Training session at Cathedral Village, to increase the effectiveness of present efforts and encourage the development of an agenda for the coming year, offered an opportunity for disseminating goals and objectives by Vice Presidents of the departments of Missions, Diocesan Ministries, Promotion, World Services and United Thank Offering. The Lay Ministries Committee was represented and Lea Hill Scholarship Committee, which is exploring alternate ways of funding as more requests for aid are received than can be granted because funds are very limited.

Documenting other activities include visiting the Wholistic Health Center, 6000 Wayne Ave. to explore services offered, participating in the (In) Dignity of Aging Conference at Valley Forge, the United Thank Offering Fall Ingathering at Christ Church resulting in an offering of $41,293.15. St. Martin-in-the Fields will be the scene for our Spring Ingathering. A morning with the Rev. J. Brooke Mosley, the topic "Children Bearing Children" and ways Episcopalians can be supportive to young women, parents and the community. The pre-Lenten "Day of Recollection" for the Board at St. Margaret's House, conducted by the Rev. Sister Adele Marie will be an annual retreat. Program Evaluation and Planning Day at the Church of the Saviour with The Rev. Carol Chamberlain as consultant, provided the opportunity to evaluate the work of ECW, clarified what our mission is, and plan a design for carrying out that mission.

The Food Crisis Committee has met regularly during the year, distributing funds to food cupboards and soup kitchens, to feed individuals in need of basic foods to sustain life.

We have been actively devising ways and encouraging women to recognize and preserve the history of women in the parishes. Resulting from this awareness is the publication of 31 women who made outstanding contributions to their parishes or the Diocese. This document will be on display at the Bicentennial Exhibit. E.C.W. were encouraged to submit recent church needlework for exhibit. A tour of the Exhibit followed by a luncheon is planned for the wives of the Clergy at Neighborhood House, Christ Church.

We plan to remain aware of the theme given us at the last Triennial, "Go Forth Into the World". Invite members of your board to Parish and Deanery meetings. Let us be aware of support and extend the ministries of women, bringing about fuller participation as we provide opportunities for leadership and spiritual growth.

"Go Forth Into the World" remembering the prayer, "Lord you have done so much for me, no wonder I am thankful".

Blessings and Peace,

Karey B. Smith

FOOD CRISIS FUND REPORT

Nancy Ritter May, 1984

The past year has seen a dramatic increase of the activity of this Committee. Last year's figure of $13,185.25 has more than tripled which was double the year before. This sum is a result of a $5000 donation from Program/Budget, the offering from the Convention Eucharist, a Federal grant of $14,443, and large and small gifts from congregations and individuals.

The Committee has held twelve meetings as well as had representation to the Metropolitan Christian Council of Philadelphia Emergency Food/Shelter Coordinating Committee. Through this link of MCCP we were able to secure a $14,443 Federal grant for our Philadelphia cupboards. This money had to be used and accounted for between the hot months of July and September. During these three months we accounted for 26,462 meals served from this grant.

Four new cupboards requested help this year: Zion Hill Baptist Church, Philadelphia; St. Mary's, Chester (through the Delaware Co. Caring Coalition); St. John's Norristown (the only cupboard we know that has a breakfast kitchen), and the Pa. Council of Churches Refugee Services Center which has a youth training program. In addition to these four, donations were made to the following:

Church of the Advocate - food cupboard
Church of the Advocate - soup kitchen
Bucks County Community Center, Bristol
Calvary Episcopal Church, Rockdale

Christ Church and St. Ambrose, Philadelphia
Colonial Neighborhood Council, Conshohocken
Coordinating Council for Health and Welfare, Warminster
Philadelphia Commission for the Homeless
Fish Interfaith, Norristown
Interfaith of Eastern Montgomery County, Abington
La Communidad Hispana, Kennett Square
Lighthouse Community Center, Philadelphia
Open Line, East Greenville
Pottstown Interfaith Rafters Charities, Philadelphia
St. Thomas' Church, Philadelphia
St. Luke's, Philadelphia
Coatesville Area Emergency Food Cupboard
Church of the Advent, Hatboro
St. Mark's, Philadelphia
St. Mary's, Bainbridge
Bucks County Opportunity Council
St. Elisabeth's Church, Mifflin

In March a reception for representatives from food centers on this list was held at St. Stephen's Church, Philadelphia. This was the first time we had interfaced with our recipient cupboards, and it proved a successful sharing of ideas.

This current report from a recipient cupboard in Warminster speaks to our concerns.

"We are very grateful for your continued support over the years which have enabled us to help so many people who are truly in need. We have been able to purchase items needed to give our clients a balanced diet instead of just a few odds and ends of canned goods.

"This past Christmas on Friday night late I received a call from Eastern Montgomery County Interfaith (our sister organization in the communities below us in Montgomery County) that there was a young girl with three small children in Warminster who had nothing but a ½ box of cereal in the house.

"We were shocked as we really felt that we had reached all those in need and all had received a Christmas basket. I had someone check and it was true. So my husband and I early on Saturday morning went to our cupboard and filled four large boxes with food and my minister heard us and said someone had just dropped off a turkey so he gave it to us and we went over to the house.

"It was a sad situation. Another child, a little boy of four was dying in Children's Hospital in Philadelphia, and she had used her Welfare check for train fare and to pay a baby sitter so she could visit him. Someone had gotten her milk with W.I.C. Stamps but that was all she had. She broke down and cried when we brought the food in. We also gave her $25 in food certificates so it would last her for two weeks.

"We notified another organization about the family and they got a Christmas tree and gifts for all the children. It made all of us have a more meaningful Christmas by knowing that we had brought happiness to this young family, and we were reminded of Christ's words, "In as much as you have done it until the least of these my brethen, ye have done unto me."

Total disbursements for our 1983-84 calendar year are $44,949.

UNITED THANK OFFERING

Bette Potts — May, 1984

The United Thank Offering continues to flourish in our Diocese with 150 parishes participating in the UTO during the past year. The total Diocesan offerings (Fall 1982 and Spring 1983) was $83,400.33. These offerings were included in the grants made in 1983 for use in 1984. In our Diocese, the Philadelphia Committee for the Homeless received a two year grant totaling $30,000. The Fall, 1983 Ingathering was $41,293.15 and will be included in the annual total with the present Spring Ingathering.

A service of Evening Prayer and the Presentation of the Fall UTO Ingathering was held at Christ Church, Philadelphia, on November 20, 1983 at 3 P.M. The speaker was Dr. William Arnold, Ass't. to the Rector, Church of the Redeemer, Springfield, Pa. The Ingathering was followed by Tea in the Neighborhood House. The Holy Eucharist and Presentation of the Spring 1984 Ingathering was held at St. Martin-in-the-Fields, Chestnut Hill on Wednesday, May 2, at 1:00 P.M. Ann Smith, Educational Coordinator of Woman's Ministries, Episcopal Church Center, N.Y.C. was the speaker. The service was followed by the ECW Annual Meeting and Tea.

In addition to planning the UTO Diocesan Ingatherings, the primary focus of our committee has been the promotion of the United Thank Offering in this Diocese.... "Go Forth into the World".... We have to continued to offer programs to parishes, maintain files and mailing lists to insure personal contact with custodians, distribute most of the UTO promotional material on file at the Church House, and promote the past and most recent UTO grant recipients in our Diocese by sharing the news of their activity and service.

The United Thank Offering has participated in a Grantsmanship seminar at St. Mark's, Philadelphia in September and prepared and exhibited the UTO promotional display at the Diocesan Convention in October. The UTO program has been presented at the following parishes: Trinity, Oxford; Emmanuel, Holmesburg; Trinity, Buckingham; St. Anne, Abington; Good Shepherd, Kensington; and St. Mary, Warwick. There has been telephone contact with 42 parishes and four mailings to all parish custodians. The UTO and Department of World Service hosted a reception for their representatives in the Pennypack Deanery. Mrs. Karey Smith, ECW President, was the speaker.

The Diocesan UTO committee has distributed all material and information received from the national UTO offices. We have participated in the review of the local UTO grant applications to be submitted for consideration to the national UTO Committee.

A special thank you to all custodians and ECW presidents in our Diocese. Your interest and continued support of the United Thank Offering is so essential to the success of the Blue Box and all it represents in our Diocese. Many thanks, too, for the unfailing support and friendship of the Assistant Diocesan Custodian, Celi Putnam and her assistant, Bonnie Margaret!

Bette Potts,
Diocesan United Thank Offering
Custodian

DEPARTMENT OF DIOCESAN MINISTRIES

Mrs. Mary Minter May, 1984

On October 12, 1983, all women of the Diocese had the opportunity to visit the facilities of the Wholistic Health Care Center at 6000 Wayne Avenue, Philadelphia. Its pastoral director, The Rev. Wallace Fletcher, Jr. spoke to us about the interactive effect of physical illness and emotional and spiritual states. The center was started two years ago with funds that included $30,000.00 from the United Thank Offering. As a result of our visit an audio/visual program is in the process of being created which will be available for use by parish ECW's.

Other Diocesan ministries of concern are:
The Seaman's Church Institute, The Episcopal Community Services, Voyage House, All Soul's Church for the Deaf and the Food Cupboards.

Mary Minter, Vice President
Department of Diocesan Ministries

DEPARTMENT OF PROMOTION

Mrs. Lillian Milan May, 1984

There are many interesting activities taking place at parishes of the Diocese. The Department of Promotion has had the unique pleasure of publicizing them. Doing this has been one of the ways we have extended the Christian Ministry of our department.

Each parish engages in successful programs that should be known throughout. This is an excellent opportunity to let other parishes know for future events they will engage in. Many parishes informed us, and we circulated promotional news about it, far ahead of performance time.

It has been rewarding to have access to the services of our own Episcopalian edited by our own, Janette Pierce, News Editor. When written articles of your plans were sent to us, we gladly shared them. Please continue. Mail to:

Department of Promotion
Episcopal Churchwomen
1700 Market Street, Suite 2616
Philadelphia, Pa. 19103

Our ways of promoting are many: Telephoning, conversation, posters, newspaper articles, church bulletins and other methods of sharing.

Our Diocese is large but the Department of Promotion makes it smaller by means of communication. Parishioners have become more aware of this closeness fellowship and spiritual growth.

Our Promotional Committee is awaiting news of your programs. Because of the proximity of two members, we tried to keep abreast with information received. We were able to move forward with the on-going help of Committee Member, Elizabeth Bedinger.

This has been a year of goodwill from and with fellow chairpersons.

We thank all who supported us, and we know with your continued involvement we will extend "communications".

Thankfully submitted,

Lillian M. Millan, Chairperson

DEPARTMENT OF WORLD SERVICES

Mrs. Dorothy G. Villante — May, 1984

On April 7, 1983, I accepted the responsibility of completing Nancy Umfer's term as Vice President of World Services. Since then the World Service Department has gone through a reorganization period. From brainstorming to praying, concluding that people working together in groups can accomplish much more, thus the idea of creating twelve Mini-World Service Departments was born - one in each deanery.

Putting World Services out in the deaneries created three-dimensional levels, incorporating all world service work, which is as follows:

DIOCESAN LEVEL - The VP of World Services presides over the World Service Department, Diocese of Pennsylvania, promoting programs beneficial to its function which is to provide a variety of useful clothing for all God's needy children.

DEANERY LEVEL - The Mini-World Service Representative (Mini/Rep) presides over the WS/Reps in her deanery. She'll conduct the Emporium, which her PARISH WILL GRACIOUSLY HOST. At the Emporium she'll advise and instruct the World Service Reps their programs for the entire year, also provide them with their yearly supply of FREE SEWING MATERIALS and the necessary papers in processing world service work.

PARISH LEVEL - The World Service Representative will make direct contact with parishioners and sewing groups in her parish. She'll be informative about all world service programs through church bulletins, newsletters and bulletin board notices. She'll distribute FREE SEWING MATERIALS and conduct her world service programs by collecting and distributing clothing to needy neighborhood organizations - making the WS/Rep a valuable representative.

On July 27, 1983 the Vice President of World Services conducted an Indoctrination Class at Church House with the FIRST GROUP OF MINI/REPS. Explained all new procedures and supplied them with their yearly paper work which they distributed to their WS/Reps at Emporium. The class concluded with an interesting tour of Church House.

We contributed $350 to the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief and spent a total of $323 for sewing materials which was distributed to the WS/Reps at the Emporiums. Ten Emporiums took place in September, one in October and one never quite made it. Some were well attended, others not. EVERYONE IS WELCOME TO ATTEND THE EMPORIUM IN THEIR DEANERY. By attending you'll learn much more about what World Services is all about. If you think you know everything about the organizations we make donations to, we promise you surprising results when you hear our guest speakers from these organizations. So come-on-out to the Emporium in your deanery to HEAR WHAT YOU'RE MISSING!

WORLD SERVICE SUNDAY, which is our Fall clothing drive for children and adults from child size 7 and up, took place in the parishes on September 18, 25,October 2 and 9, 1983. LAYETTE SUNDAY, which is our Spring clothing drive for babies and children from newborn to child size 6, took place in the parishes on February 19, 26, March 4 and 11, 1984.

Our Layette Sunday picture ad, which appeared in the February issue of THE EPISCOPALIAN, prompted many parishes to participate. This ad also awoke some parishioners who never realized Layette Sunday existed. Thank God for advertising!

Adding both clothing drives we collected a total of 1753 pieces, that which we're aware of. Many parishes are sewing and donating their lovely articles to their favorite charities, which we know nothing about. IT'S THESE PARISHES WE WANT TO JOIN US IN WORLD SERVICES. They can still continue doing what they're doing but in joining us will enable us all to STAND UP TOGETHER AND BE COUNTED AS A WHOLE DIOCESE WORKING TOGETHER. It's so easy to join World Services - ELECT A WS/REP IN YOUR PARISH, INFORM US, and presto! you're in. It's that easy.

There are still some parishes in the dark about our new distribution procedures. If they attended their Emporium they would know. Distribution is now made at the parish level,looking to your neighborhood priorities first then consulting your list of organizations to make your final distribution. Still in the dark-call your deanery Mini/Rep or Church House for distribution papers.

Today we are experiencing the loss of a great number of "HELPING WOMEN" who are becoming "WORKING WOMEN". We're hoping that these women will still continue contributing to World Services by either purchasing an article of clothing or donating money.

The United Thank Offering and World Services fused their energies, creating a "Dynamic Duo". This Duo conducted a Cluster Meeting at the home of Bette Potts on September 13, 1983. Seven parishes in the Pennypack Deanery were represented. New ideas and information were shared by all. We also enjoyed feasting on super "non-fattening" desserts. On Sunday, February 26, 1984 the Duo performed at a Communion Breakfast at the Church of The Good Shepherd, Kensington in the Fairmount Deanery. Father Powers was a very gracious host and about twenty-five persons attended who were eager to learn about our ECW Department Programs. Bette also showed slides on UTO accomplishments down through the years. The Duo will also be appearing June 5, 1984 at a June Luncheon Meeting at the Good Shepherd Church, Hilltown in the Bucks Deanery. Anyone interested in booking them can call the Church House.

In celebrating Women's History Week, we highlighted the "World Service Department" at the Third Annual Women's Festival at The Bourse on Sunday, March 4,1984. It was a wonderful experience and delightful event for me because so many loyal members offered their valuable time and support in making our display a success. Many thanks also to all who patronized this event.

This year on May 6, the WS/Dept. will conduct a "Blanket Sunday" sponsored by Church World Service/CROP. Thirty parishes have consented to participate. Church World Service distributes these blankets world-wide bringing dignity to people uprooted by natural and man-made disasters. Upon completing their third quarter of 1983, Church World Service had distributed more than 328,000 blankets to God's neediest children. These blankets must be replaced continuously so that Church World Service can carry on their endless work.

Reflections on the first year of World Services in the deaneries-with a rating from 1 to 10-would have to be a "3". I know it's going to take time for people to change their customary habits but still feel that this is the direction World Services should go, giving parishes a greater opportunity to tune in and participate with one another thus producing a larger outreach to neighborhood priorities. Hopefully, we will broaden our horizon in restoring dignity and decency to those in need. Under the careful leadership of Karey Smith who reminds us from time to time to "GO FORTH INTO

THE WORLD" - with the diligent help and cooperating from all the Mini and WS/Reps - WE SHALL.

"LET NOT THE NEEDY BE FORGOTTEN,NOR THE HOPE OF THE POOR BE TAKEN AWAY."

Faithfully Yours In Christ,
Dorothy G. Villante

NOMINATING COMMITTEE

Mrs. William Clark, Sr. — May, 1984

Lord, direct us as we assemble to do your bidding. Take our hearts and minds and let them work for you. Help us to express our Christian commitment, not seeking recognition for ourselves, but seeking to redirect the lives of others in your name. Give us the courage to be forthright; teach us to relate to each other with love, care and concern; give us the strength to share our true feelings; teach us to be patient with each other; and then God, grant that we be ever mindful of our Christian responsibilities as we chose those that will serve in your name.

VICE PRESIDENT-AT-LARGE

Roberta L. Kenkelen — May, 1984

Being the Vice President-at-Large is great fun when the Chairlady is healthy, not accident prone and present at every meeting. My tenure as Vice President-at-Large has been one of feeding people and hostessing bus trips. Both "tasks" are very much to my liking, enjoying eating and touring as I do.

The bus trip to New York City was on November 1, 1983 (All Saints Day). We visited the Episcopal Church Center for a tour of the national offices of the Episcopal Church. Canon Geyer greeted us and gave us a tour of the Center, assisted by Mrs. Susan Corney. The visit ended with a Communion Service in the chapel.

We then boarded the bus for a tour of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, the largest Gothic Cathedral in the world, seating 10,000 worshippers at one time.

The Tea, following the United Thank Offering Ingathering and Annual Meeting last Spring, was held at St. Paul's, Chestnut Hill and was enjoyed by all. The ladies of St. Paul's were very helpful and the ECW Board cookie-makers superb!

St. Martin-in-the-Fields is the host church for the Spring Meeting this year.

The ECW Board will salute the wives of Rectors on May 10th. As our guests they will tour the Bicentennial Exhibit and then attend a luncheon in their honor at the Neighborhood House of Christ Church.

My thanks to Karey Smith for making my "job" such an easy one and my appreciation to all the ladies on the Board who answered my call for cookies and helped me so very graciously in so many ways.

Respectfully submitted,

Roberta Kenkelen

WOMEN'S HISTORY COMMITTEE

Mrs. Elizabeth Higbee — May, 1984

The E.C.W. chose to research their "Foremothers" as their contribution to the Episcopal Church's Bicentennial Year. Numerous requests were made to all churches in the monthly mailings and in the Episcopalian. Biographies of thirty-one (31) women, now deceased, have been put into booklet form which will be sent to the one hundred and seventy one (171) churches in the Diocese of Pennsylvania, and a copy will be on display at the exhibition in the First Bank during the month of May.

There are many more women who should be included in our History, so, since this is a continuing project, we trust we shall receive their biographies next year. Every church should have a name to add to the next publication.

We ask that the copy mailed to each church be put in the Church Library or in a place which is accessible to all.

Next year the committee will be expanded to include all Deanery Representatives, and our goal is to have a special printed edition including a compilation of the two years.

Elizabeth E. Higbee,
Chairperson, History Committee

GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY

Adele Ray — May, 1984

The Girls' Friendly Society in the Diocese of Pennsylvania experienced a year of growth in 1983. We welcomed into our fellowship two new branches: St. George's, West End and Good Shepherd, Rosemont. We have had requests from several churches for information about forming a branch.

Our program of Worship, Study, Service and Creative Activities provided an opportunity for the girls of our Diocese and communities to better understand themselves and others. There are three age groups, Juniors are 6-10 years of age, Intermediates 11-13 and Seniors 14-21. We also have several active sponsor groups as well as individuals that encourage and support Girls Friendly Society activities.

The girls participate not only in the branches but on Diocesan National and World programs of our organization. This gives them the opportunity to reach out and share their lives with others. Caring and Sharing is stressed throughout the year.

One of the many projects enjoyed by the girls is providing tray favors for 14 different hospitals and homes for the various holidays. We also run the Gingerbread Booth at the Episcopal Hospital May Fete with the proceeds going to the Elizabeth Price Martin League which benefits the hospital. Helping Seaman's Institute and Episcopal Community Services taxi coupons for the blind are other ways we show we care.

Our annual Junior Day celebrated each year at a different church was held at Grace Church and Incarnation this year. We were pleased to have Bishop Ogilby join us for our Mission Service and fun day. The girls take part in handcraft and talent competitions. Many ribbons and trophies are awarded.

The Senior-Sponsor Mission service was held at Gloria Dei, where we enjoyed a History of the Church, a lovely service and luncheon.

The National Assembly took place at Tufts University, Medford, Massachusetts. Our Diocese was represented by 24 girls, age 14 to 19 and 11 leaders. Adele Ray, St. James, Perkiomen was the outgoing National President and Carmen Smith, St. Thomas' West Philadelphia completed her term as a Board member. Marion Gallagher, St. John's Huntingdon Valley was elected Secretary of the National Board. The week was filled with Worship services, meetings and workshops. The Boston Pops concert, sight-seeing, the Dolphin show at the Aquarium were but a few of the fun things we did. A big thank you to the many E.C.W.'s that helped make it possible for our girls to participate.

Holiday House at Cape May, New Jersey is always a popular place for all our members, their families and friends. About 90 girls took part in the planned programs during July. Several youth groups, chairs and vestries held retreats after the regular season.

Holy Trinity, Rittenhouse Square hosted our Girls' Friendly Society World Day of Prayer Service in the Fall. It was a beautiful service attended by all age groups. This service is celebrated each year around the Feast of St. Michael and All Angels. Offerings taken at this service are given to our World Project. The Girls' Friendly Society in the Transker, Africa received our offering this year.

My first year as Diocesan President has been a wonderful experience, surrounded by many willing workers. I am looking forward to representing our Girls' Friendly Society at the 11th World Council to be held in Japan, August 1984. The theme will be, Together in Christ - Sharing Love and Peace.

Respectfully submitted,

ELIZABETH PRICE MARTIN LEAGUE #2

Episcopal Hospital

Mrs. Lewis C. Dick

May, 1984

The prime purpose of the Elizabeth Price Martin League #2 is to stimulate interest in the hospital, to bring attention to the needs of the hospital and to give time and service to the patients of the hospital.

On May 25, 1983 the league sponsored its 50th Annual May Fete on the ground of the hospital. For the first time, because of its 50th, the entire hospital staff was involved in the event by sponsoring booths, entertainment and health projects. This was so successful, the same plan will be followed at this year's event. A profit of $7,510.29 was realized from the 1983 fete.

A Christmas Lobby Bazaar was held on December 14th and a profit of $767.31 was earned. The league supplied the Chaplain, Rev. Benjamin Axelrod, with Poinsettia plants for the Chapel at Christmas. Gifts for Harrison House patients were purchased and presented at the annual Christmas party. Candy canes were distributed in the Out-Patient Departments. A full page ad ($350) was placed in the December Charity Ball Program.

Life Savers were given to all donors of a very successful Blood Bank Drive in March. Red carnations were presented to the medical staff on Doctors Day, March 30th by league members.

A library in the hospital is maintained by the league. Some patients are able to visit the Library, but for those unable to do so a Library cart is circulated through the hospital.

The league operates a well stocked Gift Shop in the main lobby. Besides the attractive gifts, other items include cards, candy, paperbooks, magazines and sundries. A shopping cart makes the rounds of the hospital for the benefit of patients.

The lobby of the Potter-Morris Building was recently renovated. The league donated $27,000 toward this project. A three year Nursing Scholarship is given each year.

Active membership in the league consists of 18 members with 25 associate members. The league sent delegates to all stated meetings of the Pennsylvania Association of Hospital Auxiliaries and also to the Kensington Community Council.

Episcopal Hospital will exhibit at the forthcoming Bicentennial of the Diocese of Pennsylvania and contribute to the Women's History Project with a history of the life and work of our founder, Elizabeth Price Martin.

You are most cordially invited to our 51st Annual May Fete on Wednesday, May 23rd - rain date, May 24th.

Dear Friends of EPML #3

Your very generous response to our Christmas letter will enable us to carry out the program we have planned for 1984.

The Christmas Party was held on December 28, 1983 and 160 residents were there. The Girls Friendly Society of Emmanuel Church came to sing carols and helped serve refreshments. Santa was there to distribute a small gift to each person. Everybody joined in the carols and we had a wonderful time.

On February 16 we celebrated St. Valentines Day with a formal tea party. Two of our members loaned silver tea services and with flowers and candles the table was lovely. The refreshments were simply ice cream, tea and cookies. We tried to provide a little touch of elegance and they loved it.

Doughnuts and coffee were served on Shrove Tuesday after the weekly celebration of Holy Communion.

The Annual Communion and Breakfast will be held on Tuesday, May 1, 1984. The Eucharist will be in the chapel at 9:00 A.M. Breakfast will be served at 10:00 A.M. in the dining room. As always we need help and so many have been so faithful in the past that we are looking forward to seeing you again this year.

The Annual Picnic will be held in June. We will need volunteers to help with the games and to serve food. The league will provide some small extra treat for each resident.

Again we thank you for your continuous support and generosity. The residents are aware of the many friends they have in the EPML #3 who make it possible to do all these things and wish to express their thanks and appreciation too.

God Bless all of you.

Sincerely,

Nancy Snyder

LAY MINISTRY COMMITTEE

Amy S. Lancaster May, 1984

The Lay Ministry Committee sees that its most significant accomplishment of the year is its variety. Not all ideas have been acted upon, not all needs have been recognized, but a few issues facing all women have been touched. Initial interest was expressed to continue to be the contact for Episcopal Churchwomen being involved with the Mayor's Commission on Women, to answer their questionaires and to support their calls for letter-writing advocacy. We proclaimed "Domestic Violence Awareness Week" to our members. We reminded and shall remind again that "It's a man's world unless Women VOTE". We identified the reluctance of older women to walk about town and shall include this fact on our agenda for another year.

Our primary concern for young women and men is the increased occurrance of inappropriate pregnancies. With Bishop Mosley as our leader we presented a morning on "Children Bearing Children". This resulted in several challenges which must be addressed next year.

For the Bicentennial Exhibition the Lay Ministry is the primary contact between the ECW Board and the Exhibition Committee. General Episcopal Churchwomen's history was researched and written for the catalogue. Recent representative work in fiber is being assembled as catalogued for this event. The joyful outpouring of work indicates the need for increased sharing of these skills and ideas on a day scheduled in the fall.

A thank you to all who have joined in the responsibility for planning and identification of each part of this Lay Ministry goes to Ada Harris, Calvary-Northern Liberties; Nancy Ritter, All Saints-Norristown; Geneva Carter, Crucifixion; Josephine Wells, Calvary-Northern Liberties; Barbara Pilling, St. Martin-in-the-Fields; Helen Montgomery, Trinity-Buckingham; and Nokomis Wood, St. Martin-in-the-Fields.

DIOCESAN HUNGER COMMITTEE

Mrs. Georgia Thomas May, 1984

This committee has been involved in many activities, including a trip to Rodale Research Center, which was an enjoyable experience.

Four members of our committee attended The Hunger Conference at Clagget Episcopal Conference Center in Maryland and returned with valuable information.

A Window Garden workshop at the home of Marty Reed in Doylestown followed the Eucharist Service at Trinity Church, Buckingham.

Debbie Findley of Jubilee Crafts gave a slide presentation and displayed crafts at one of our meetings.

Georgia Thomas visited with David Crean, the Hunger Officer at his New York office. She was also our Diocesan Representative to CROP, appeared on "Diologue" with Cristy Sabing, CROP Coordinator.

There was a display at Diocesan Convention with pictures of a soup kitchen and food cupboard, Hunger notes and other pamphlets plus Jubilee crafts.

A Hunger luncheon at Newman Center was catered by Asian members and served by Boy Scouts, and a Musical Program was presented by the young people of Calvary, St. Paul's Church, the Rev. Bob Greer, Pastor.

Georgia visited senators and congressmen, helped host a dinner meeting at Virginia Smith's with guest speaker, the Rev. Steve Cummings, Staff of Bread for the World and professor at the University of Southern California.

DAUGHTERS OF THE KING
DIOCESE OF PENNSYLVANIA ASSEMBLY

Carolyn Glover May, 1984

The Order of the Daughters of the King is a Lay Order for women in the Episcopal Church whose members take vows of Prayer and Service when they are admitted. Our primary purposes are Evangelism, especially among women and girls; Prayer, both intercessory for individuals in need and general for the spread of Christ's Kingdom and the Spiritual Lives of our parishes; and Service within our parishes by teaching Church School, being Lay Readers, and members of the Vestry, choir members, etc. and in the world through Contact and other Christian oriented organizations.

There are four active Chapters in the Diocese of Pennsylvania with a fifth one forming. There are members-at-large who are unable to attend chapter meetings. A Junior Chapter was formed this past year.

Members are not permitted to raise money in the name of the Order but individuals participate in other organizations'fund-raising activities within their parishes.

Free Will Offerings from members nationally are made to several Funds. The Self-Denial Fund, received during Epiphany, pays the salaries and living expenses of our missionaries in Brazil, Elizabeth Daniels and Pat Powers. They work with women and children. Pat is involved in the Christian Education Program. On July 14, 1983 they celebrated the second anniversary of the Brazilian Chapter. Pat and another Daughter are forming the first Junior Daughters Chapter which will be English and Portuguese speaking.

The Master's Fund Offering received during Pentecost is a scholarship fund to help women prepare for some form of Church related ministry. The Endowment Fund is raised through memorials to the Book of Remembrance and contributions for Thanksgiving and honor to the Book of Honor and is used for Extension Work of the Order.

The Provincial Assembly of the order was held at St. John's Church, Baltimore, Maryland on Saturday, June 18, 1983.

The Annual Diocesan Assembly will be held Saturday, May 19, 1984 at St. Timothy's Church, Roxborough.

Respectfully submitted,
Carolyn Glover, Diocesan President

CHURCHWOMEN UNITED

Mrs. Marcellus Reddick (J. Flossie) May, 1984

Churchwomen United in the U.S.A. is a national ecumenical movement of Christian women witnessing to unity and faith in Jesus Christ, through worship, study, action and celebration.

Our strength comes from unity of faith in Christ and our diversity of religious tradition, race, ethnic background, age, and economic status. We of Churchwomen United have an allegiance with all who share a common commitment of justice, peace, and faith in the Lord Jesus Christ.

Churchwomen United was founded in December, 1941, the year of Pearl Harbor. At that time, Christian women came together to form a bind never to be broken.

1983 was a banner year for our branch, thus making a year of prosperity for the National Organization.

The Churchwomen United of Greater Philadelphia is still demonstrating that it is a viable movement with exciting possibilities for the future.

We were delighted to have our national president, Dr. Adair step out on the peace mission. She stated that whatever the challenge was, she was on a journey of faith.

We shared in the international diplomacy, the 98th celebration of World Day of Prayer march this year.

Our sixtieth anniversary ecumenical luncheon was celebrated April 2, 1984 with much happiness. Now that we are in our fifth decade, every women is asked to share in the movement. Our share of funds received from the "Fifth Decade" went to help two organizations, which were the Rafters Charities, Inc. and the Women Against Rape. We were thankful to those who gave that we might help those who could not help themselves.

Our local former president, Mrs. Hattie Hamilton, was elected State President last year and she will also attend the 1984 Ecumenical Assembly, which will be held July 19-23, 1984 at Purdue University, Lafayette, Indiana.

We are asking all women to join the Churchwomen United of Greater Philadelphia and learn the miracle of Unity, Faith and Love.

YOUTH MINISTRY REPORT

The following represents a brief overview of the activities of our Diocesan Youth Co-ordinator, Miss Betty L. Creamer, and the Youth Ministry of the Diocese which she directs.

The St. Timothy's Youth Center at St. Paul's Church, Elkins Park, is in its second year providing a week-end setting for the training of clergy and youth workers, as well as a convenient and fitting place for young people to experience carefully designed programs.

The Youth Co-ordinator, who lives at the St. Timothy's Center, spends most of her week-ends there leading the programs mentioned above. On Sundays she visits parishes, meeting with clergy, youth workers, and young people. She often addresses the congregation at their principal liturgy. Since the last convention, she has had very close to one hundred separate meetings with clergy and/or youth leaders.

Beyond our Diocese's five county area, we were represented at the Triennial National Episcopal Youth Event held last summer at Oklahoma State University from August 6 to August 10th. Our Diocese had forty participants at the event in Oklahoma.

Regarding our involvement at the Province III level, we are represented by the Diocesan Youth Co-ordinator together with Darien Meares from the Youth Group at St. Luke's Church, Germantown. Darien Meares functions at the Provincial level on the National Design Team for Social Action. Next summer we will have an opportunity to participate in a social action project designed by this provincial level.

The untimely death last summer of Mr. Amos Norwood, adult leader at St. Luke's, Germantown, and the outpouring of young people who attended his funeral, underscore the important role such leaders exercise in the Ministry to the youth. The continued emphasis in the year ahead will be to train and equip adults to minister to young people at the Parish level, the Deanery level, and the Diocesan level.

The Rev. Thomas L. McClellan
Chairman, Youth Ministry Committee

APPENDIX #17:

REPORT OF THE REFUGEE RESETTLEMENT COMMITTEE

The Refugee Resettlement Committee received a one-time enabling grant from the Presiding Bishop's Fund. As of April 1, the Committee hired a refugee resettlement coordinator on a part-time basis to work with the committee in developing sponsors for refugees; to support sponsors and refugees during the resettlement process; and to co-ordinate the resources available for refugees from federal, state and local agencies.

Our first successful resettlement was reuniting a Polish refugee with her sister. Our second effort was a major one -- resettling a Polish family of six. Through the sponsorship and dedicated efforts of the members of the Conestoga Deanery this family is already making strides toward becoming self-sufficient members of our community.

We are awaiting the arrival of two young men, one Polish and one Ethiopian, whose families here will receive support from Diocesan parishes. We are also hoping that an Afghanistan family of six will soon be joining their brother here.

Two families, one Vietnamese and one Hungarian, who were referred to us will be reunited with their families through Catholic Social Services and the Hebrew Immigrant Aid Society. This type of cooperation among voluntary agencies makes it possible to avoid duplication of services.

We are also monitoring the progress of a seventeen year old, pregnant Vietnamese woman who was sent here to Philadelphia from California to spend her pregnancy with her brother. The young woman's resettlement into this country was handled by the Episcopal Church in California and we feel some responsibility for her welfare.

Our primary goal for the coming year is to locate sponsors through local parishes who will respond to the needs of refugees who are waiting throughout the world to come to Philadelphia.

ALCOHOL, ALCOHOL ABUSE AND ALCOHOLISM COMMITTEE (4A)
of the

An Annual Report to Diocesan Convention
October 19 and 20, 1984

In July of 1980, the 4A Committee was formed by Bishop Ogilby. He appointed the Rev. Glenn M. Matis, chairperson. This committee was an outgrowth of the 1979 General Convention Resolution that asked each diocese to form a 4A Committee. The committee's original charter was to do the following:

1. Provide a written procedure for treatment of clergy and diocesan employees and members of their families who suffer from the illness of alcoholism.

2. Include in its policy a statement covering the use of alcoholic beverages at church functions and/or on church property, with particular emphasis on the provision of non-alcoholic choices.

3. Provide an employee's policy statement which includes assurances of job security and insurance coverage for those completing a prescribed course of alcoholic treatment.

The 4A committee carried out these mandates. In February of 1981 the committee submitted its final recommendations. The Standing Committee endorsed these recommendations at their February 24, 1981 meeting. A copy of these policies: The Procedures for Alcoholic Clergy and the Use of Alcohol at Church Functions is available from The Rev. Glenn M. Matis (1-598-3405)

Some congregations have adopted a policy about alcoholic beverages at church functions; however, a number have not done this. The 4A Committee is available to help any congregation formulate a parish policy that is consistent with its norms and customs. If a congregation desires assistance in this matter, they are requested to call me.

The 4A Committee generally meets the second Tuesday of every month at Church House from 3 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. Every November, the committee meets for a half day to formulate goals and objectives for the coming year. Some of the goals and objectives for the future are:

1. Attain funding through the 1985 Diocesan Budget for our work and ministry.

2. Speak in parishes and deaneries about alcohol, alcohol abuse and alcoholism.

3. Have a presentation about "Alcohol Awareness Sunday" (November 18, 1984) at Diocesan Convention. Hopefully, a board member from the National Episcopal Coalition on Alcohol will be present at the 201st Diocesan Convention to speak about "Alcohol Awareness Sunday."

4. Sponsor a joint conference with Episcopal Community Services for their associate chaplains on January 10, 1985. The Rev. Vernon Johnson will be the speaker.

5. Encourage clergy to attend AA and Al-Anon meetings for educational and resource purposes. A member of the 4A committee is available to meet with the cleric before and after the AA or Al-Anon meeting. The purpose of these pre- and post-meetings is to address any concerns or answer any questions. The committee member is also willing to accompany the cleric to the meeting.

The 4A Committee is a broad-based one. We have recovering alcoholics, social drinkers, male, female, clergy, lay people, professional and non-professional. If anyone is interested in joining the committee, please call me.

Respectfully Submitted,

Glenn M Matis

APPENDIX #19:

THE SOCIAL CONCERNS COMMITTEE OF THE DIOCESE OF PENNSYLVANIA

This is a first report of a new committee that was constituted in February of 1984. The committee's sense is that it is still finding its way, looking at an overwhelming host of issues that it might consider but trying to establish its own internal sense of direction and purpose.

The Diocese has not had a Social Concerns Committee, although there have been numerous committees charged with responsibility for specific issues: racism, refugees, hunger and the like. No committee has existed with responsibility to look at the broad scene, to identify, study and act on challenges and problems that properly might be the concern of the church.

The Bishop saw the need for such a group and appointed a 16 person committee, half of whom had served on the old Public Issues Committee of Episcopal Community Services. Members of the committee are: Paul Twelves, Chair; Russell Bechtel, Van S. Bird, Thomas W. Clark, Jane R. Cosby, Dudley Hughes, Helen White, Arthur J. Kelly, Marie J. Lennan, Floyd Naters-Gamarra, Sidney Repplier, Nancy Ritter, Lucy Sayre, Peter P. Silvinskas, Dixie G. Wigton and Enid T. Winston.

To date we have dealt with the following matters:

We have noted racism in the spring Primary Election in certain parts of the metropolitan area and, that at our request, the Bishop issued a strong statement condemning racism.

We have looked at the revised eligibility requirements for food stamp recipients and considered the impact of these revisions on people who are on welfare. A member of our committee appeared before City Council to urge restoration of Child Welfare funding. The committee wrote congressmen urging extension of the Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program.

We have reviewed the various revisions of Regulation A-122 of the Office of Management and Budget. This regulation has frightened non-profit service agencies throughout the nation because of its possible prohibition of advocacy efforts of organizations that receive federal funds. This results in severe restriction of freedom on those who work on behalf of the oppressed. We continue to study this regulation as it goes through further revision.

Within our committee we recognize a tension between those who want to study all issues in detail and those who want to take strong and clear action quickly. We believe that that is a healthy tension which will contribute to the committee's work and will make it all the more useful in bringing before our Bishop and the congregations of the diocese those pressing issues in our social structure where the church's voice needs to be heard.

Paul D. Twelves, Chair

APPENDIX #20:

RE-3: COMMISSION ON ECUMENICAL AND INTERFAITH RELATIONS

The Rev. John Leser resigned on Dec. 31, 1983; he had served as the Ecumencal Officer of the Diocese of Pennsylvania for 10 years.

The Ecumenical Commission wishes to take this opportunity at the 201st Diocesan Convention to express its sincere gratitude to Fr. Leser for his exemplary leadership and ecumenical involvement. The Rev. John F. Leser has been accorded national recognition for his development of Parish Ecumenical Representatives (PER) within our Diocese. We now have 74 PERs representing 43 percent of the 170 congregations in the Diocese. The Parish Ecumenical Representative has two basic functions: 1) To be a liaison between the Diocesan Commission, the rector and congregation; 2) To be a parish planner with the rector and/or an ecumenical committee.

The Bishop appointed the Rev. Wilfred F. Penny in January, 1984, to serve as Diocesan Ecumenical Officer. One of his first duties was to represent the Bishop on January 14 at the 20th anniversary of the Episcopal Consecration of His Eminence Archbishop Torkom Manoogian at Holy Trinity Armenian Church in Cheltenham.

There is a common saying, "If it is not local, it is not real." The local Church is a most important place in, and for, ecumenism. Throughout our Diocese during 1984 there have been a number of ecumenical involvements on the local level which came to the attention of the Ecumenical Commission:

Three hundred people gathered for the annual Agape in Pottsown, commemorating the Week of Christian Unity at which Dr. Peter Doghramji, assistant conference minister of The United Church of Christ, was the speaker. At St. James, Kingsessing on February 4, from 12:30 to 5 P.M., a conference on Lutheran-Episcopal Dialogue was led by Professor Reginald Fuller. The day was concluded with a Shared Interim Episcopal-Lutheran Eucharist.

Twenty Episcopal and Roman Catholic priests of the Valley Forge Deanery area began meeting together for luncheon and discussion on January 19. Monthly meetings together for luncheon and discussion on January 19. Monthly meetings have been held with dialogue on The Final Report, of the Roman Catholic International Consultation. The group was initiated by Episcopal priests inviting local Roman Catholic priests as their guests. On September 27, the group will be the guests of Fr. Hugh Nolan at St. Isaac Jogues Roman Catholic Church in Devon. Discussion will be on the document Baptism, Eucharist Ministry (BEM) of the Faith and Order section of the World Council of Churches.

The Plenary Session of the Ecumenical and Interfaith Commission was held on Saturday, March 31 in the Church of the Saviour, Philadelphia, when Dr. Charles H. Long, spoke on Vancouver Voices, a resume of the World Council of Churches meeting in Vancouver, B.C., during the summer of 1983.

Over 200 gathered at All Saints Church, Torresdale, on June 6, for a Pentecost observance of Prayer for Christian unity.

Your Ecumenical Officer represented the Bishop on July 1 at the invitation of the Cardinal's Commission on Human Relations and Urban Ministry, in observance of its 20th anniversary, and participated in the Annual Ethnic Heritage Mass and Procession at the Cathedral of Sts. Peter and Paul.

The Ecumenical Officer represented the Diocese at the 1984 National Ecumenical Workshop on Christian Unity held in Minneapolis, Minn. At the Episcopal Diocesan Ecumenical Officers (EDEO) meeting held in conjunction with the National Workshop, the Rev. Henry A. Male, Jr., of Scranton, was elected president of EDEO. Since he had been our Provincial coordinator it was necessary to elect a new coordinator who is Peggy Grant of Pittsburgh. Ann Shine of Allentown was elected Provincial treasurer.

On the interfaith scene, over 200 met at Neighborhood House of Christ Church, Philadelphia, for a forum on "Why Talk Together?" sponsored by the Jewish Community Relations Council of Greater Philadelphia and the Diocese of Pennsylvania. Our own Diocesan priest, the Rev. Philip Kunhardt, co-chairperson of the Episcopal-Jewish Dialogue, was accorded the honor of having 10 trees planted in the Garden of the Righteous in Jerusalem recognizing his interfaith work.

EDEO at its Minneapolis meeting encouraged attendance at, and support of, The National Workshop on Jewish-Christian Relations to be held October 29-November 1, at St. Louis, Mo. Two Episcopal priests were present at the 1983 Boston Workshop which 1,000 attended. Because of our Episcopal-Jewish dialogue in the Diocese of Pennsylvania, I would urge participation in the national workshop.

All Diocesan Commissions are to work on three studies before the 1985 General Convention:

1. The ARCIC Final Report. This study was to be completed before June 1, 1984.
2. The Lima Statement (BEM document). This study has been initiated. Study guides were mailed out to each parish in June. The Standing Commission on Ecumenical Relations (SCER) should have our study responses by November 1, in order that they may be collated and the proper resolutions written for official action by General Convention in 1985.
3. The Filioque Clause. A resolution is being prepared by SCER for the 1985 General Convention on this subject.

Church unity is an old, familiar problem, much discussed in the ecumenical movement and in every kind of Christian Community. But recently it has become a matter of renewed interest. The reason is the appearance of the highly important document called Baptism, Eucharist, and Ministry (BEM). It is the text of the statements agreed to by more than 100 theologians from Protestant, Anglican, Roman, and Orthodox Churches at Lima, Peru, in 1982. The Lima Text is truly a milestone for all ecumenical endeavors. It should prove a great help in every serious ecumenical study or dialogue. Your Commission recommends an in-depth study of this unique document. For source material, may I suggest the following:

1) For $1, you may procure a reprint of the Lent 1984 Prairie Messenger, a Catholic weekly, from Box 190, Muenster, Sask., Canada SOK 240. The Prairie Messenger includes the text of the BEM document and a study series for five weeks of Lent. It is an excellent source material for any five-week study program.

2) Volume 27, Number 4/1983 of St. Vladimir's Theological Quarterly devoted its whole issue to an Orthodox reflection on the Lima Statement.

3) The BEM Text as well as a Study Guide by Dr. William Lazareth may be procured at Fortress Press.

The BEM document is one that must be carefully studied with an open mind and with a heart that yearns to see the restoration of Christian Unity. Personally, I've been using the section on "The Meaning of Baptism" for the instruction of parents and godparents at Baptism. You, too, may find many practical applications of this "miracle" document.

APPENDIX #21:

Report of Commission on Racism

The task given to the Commission on Racism by Diocesan Council is "to initiate, facilitate, and monitor programs aimed at the eradication of institutional racism in the corporate life of the diocese."

In accepting this assignment, the Commission on Racism does not accept sole responsibility for dealing with racism in this diocese, nor do we see ourselves as having the exclusive right to move against this insideous evil. We believe that "The Baptismal Covenant" in The Book of Common Prayer gives every Christian that duty and that right.

Few Christians today would subscribe to the theory that one racial or ethnic group is preferred or specially favored by God over another. That is an Old Testament concept which was rejected in the New Testament. We celebrate that revelation especially during Epiphanytide and on Pentecost. The problem is that we have in many subtle ways allowed our corporate life to function in such a way that white people enjoy privileges not open to others. To examine how this is done and to bring our practice into line with our belief is the mission that awaits us all.

In the past year the Commission on Racism has assembled a bibliography and other materials and resources relating to institutional racism. We have made a presentation to two deaneries and have scheduled presentations in another. We have made a presentation in one parish and have consulted privately with one rector. We have established a booth in the convention display area. We have secured a committment from the Philadelphia Theological Institute and are working with them to conduct a workshop on racism for the entire diocese. We have prepared a resolution to be submitted to convention. We are working on new goals and an action plan for the future. In these ways we hope to contribute to our common mission.

APPENDIX #22:

RE-7: EPISCOPAL COMMUNITY SERVICES

During the past year Episcopal Community Services has made several key decisions that are enabling the agency to consolidate and focus its operations and thus better serve our brothers and sister in need. I would like to share three of those decisions with you.

* To seek affiliations for All Saints' Rehabilitation Hospital and Springfield Retirement Residence with other community institutions.

All Saints' is a small specialty hospital of 52 rehabilitation beds. Because of new health care regulations, it is no longer feasible to operate an independent institution of this size. In order to continue and strengthen the important services All Saints' provides for the elderly disabled, the ECS Board of Council voted in May to relinquish direct management of All Saints' and to seek its affiliation with a larger hospital or group of hospitals. A wide range of options are now under conideration, with the purpose of not only continuing present rehabilitative services but also developing new services for the future.

Springfield Retirement Residence is a 136-unit community that shares the All Saints' campus in Wyndmoor. Although ECS plans to relinquish management of Springfield, the facility will continue to operate under the auspices of the Episcopal Church. A number of options are now being examined. The intent is to expand Springfield's size and to provide a wider range of services for its residents.

*To increase our services to the elderly poor by providing home health care.

As the scope of our In-Home Services for the Elderly has expanded over the past two years, we have found a growing need among the elderly poor for home health care. The need may continue to intensify as the new health care regulations mentioned above take effect. In response to this need, ECS has expanded its services to the elderly to include ECS Home Care, a program that was recently certified as a home health service. Now, in addition to homemaker services, supportive counseling, and volunteer visitors, ECS can provide health aides, skilled nursing, physical therapy, speech therapy, and medcial social work services in the client's home. A unique feature of this program is that unlike public home health agencies, ECS can provide continuing care, through use of private funds, even after a patient's Medicare coverage has expired.

* To renovate the interior of Old St. Paul's Church in order to improve the safety and efficiency of ECS headquarters.

In the last year ECS has restored the exterior of Old St. Paul's Church, which serves as the agency's headquarters. Seriously deteriorated cornices have been replaced, and a new entrance walk has been constructed to make the building wheelchair-accessible. This work has been generously funded by grants from the Pew Memorial Trust, the William Penn Foundation, and the Caroline Alexander Buck Foundation.

Extensive interior renovations still need to be done. These include construction of fireproof stairs, remodeling of offices and conference rooms, new bathrooms, remodeling of the chapel, as well as other general improvements to the 224-year-old building. Selective fund-raising approaches for these projects are now being carried out.

The ECS Board of Council has established the Old St. Paul's Renovation Fund to receive gifts for the church's further renovation and the improvement of its grounds. Such gifts will be accumulated until they are sufficient to cover all or most of the remaining work, now estimated at $798,000. Approximately 25 percent of this amount is now on hand.

Thus, the need to develop new resources and creative ways of serving the poor and the powerless continues to challenge Episcopal Community Services. But with God's help and your ongoing support, we at ECW look forward to meeting that challenge in the years that lie ahead.

APPENDIX #23:

RE-2: THE SPIRITUAL GROWTH COMMITTEE

As of January, 1984, a change of leadership occurred with the appointment of the Rev. Michael Becker as chairman. Sister Adele Marie, SSM, having asked to be relieved of that responsibility.

A system of rotating membership was set up. It provides a term of three years for each member with the possibility of being reelected for a second term. It goes into effect in 1985.

The Intercession Calendar was published and distributed at the start of the Advent and Pentecost seasons.

A Quiet Day for Clergy was held at Messiah, Gwynedd, on September 20, with the Rev. Peter Silvinskas as its leader.

A retreat was sponsored jointly with the Liturgical Commission and held May 4-6 at St. Margaret's House.

During Lent, Fr. Becker, was asked to give talks on various aspects of prayer and the spiritual life at St. Paul's, Chestnut Hill; St. Andrew's, Yardley; Good Shepherd, Hilltown; a Quiet Day for St. Mark's, Locust St., Philadelphia; a weekend Retreat/Conference for Trinity, Swarthmore.

Mr. George Soule, liaison member for the Diocese, gave a talk on The Book of Common Prayer as a resource for private prayer at All Hallow's, Wyncote.

Various events related to prayer and the spiritual life, listing of recommended books on the subject, together with some quotations, were distributed via the Diocesan mailings, and it is planned to continue using this means of communication. Parishes are urged to send in notice of quiet days, retreats, etc., so that other might share in them.

A spring conference is planned for March 22-23, at St. Luke's Church, Germantown. Its leader will be Dr. Peter Hawkins, professor of religion and literature at Yale Divinity School. Details about how to register and the cost will be forthcoming.

The Prayer and Spiritual Growth Committee sees itself very much as a resource to serve the entire Diocese; to be of assistance to both clergy and laity in planning quiet days, retreats, etc., as well as providing spiritual direction for individuals and speakers for groups. We urge the use of this Diocesan resource as we all strive to grow more and more into the perfect image of Christ.

RE-5: COMMITTEE ON THE CHURCH AND HANDICAPPED PERSONS

"A special injunction in history has come to pass. An emerging minority called 'the handicapped' is now raising before our entire society, including the religious community, its own statement of identity and its sense of rightful appropriation of opportunity for achievement."

Diocesan Council responded to those words from the preface to Harold H. Wilke's Creating the Caring Congregation by forming a committee to deal with the issues of the Church and handicapped persons.

At its initial meetings the committee felt the first order of business was to assist the parishes and institutions of the Diocese in awareness of the issue.

To facilitate this objective, the committee co-sponsored, with the Presbytery of Philadelphia, a one-day conference on Jan. 28, 1984, at the First Presbyterian Church of Germantown. Close to 100 persons attended the conference. Most of the areas of interest from architecture to personal relationships, were covered. A great deal was learned and all participants agreed the conference greatly helped in raising consciousness about the needs of the handicapped in both Church and community.

The committee is currently preparing a survey for parishes and plans future events in order to fulfill its mandate.

RE-8: THE BISHOP'S COMMITTEE FOR EPISCOPAL SOCIETY FOR MINISTRY ON AGING (ESMA)

ESMA is the national resource of the Episcopal Church for developing ministries with and on behalf of older persons. It is a volunteer organization comprised of clergy and lay persons working, or interested, in the field of aging. An integral part of ESMA's structure is its national network of provincial coordinators and bishop-appointed Diocesan designees who implement ESMA's goals and objectives.

The Diocesan committee is new this year. Given the impetus of last October's national satellite ESMA program, "The (In)Dignity of Aging," the committee is planning a local conference on Thursday, November 15, at Christ Church, Philadelphia. The conference is directed to parish clergy and lay people concerned for the needs of the elderly. Professional and volunteer consultants in the field of geriatrics will provide information on the basic needs of the elderly, local information resources, ideas on forming support groups for elderly within the Church; and will answer pertinent questions.

A recently-awarded Episcopal Church Foundation grant will help create ESMA-TEL, a national aging information and referral system for the Episcopal Church clergy, professionals, laity, and the ESMA network. ESMA's function will be to maintain a centralized data bank of Episcopal-related facilities, programs, and services on aging for the purpose of supporting Diocesan systems as the first line of communication to and from the grass roots. Province III will serve as a test site for approximately a year's trial to refine the program before it is extended beyond Province III. ESMA will gather data on existing parish and Diocesan programs and services on facilities sponsored by the Episcopal Church, and will identify resource persons within the Church.

The local committee has held eight meetings in 1984, gathering resource materials on services to the elderly, as well as meeting ecumenical consultants in the field, both volunteer and professional.

Committee members are: Nancy Ritter, chairman, Richard Smith, Elizabeth Forrester, Alice Barron, Dorothy McCabe, Sally Pritchard, Marjorie Farmer, Sr. Mary Michael, and the Rev. James Mole.

RE-10: DIOCESAN COALITION FOR MISSION AND MINISTRY
(formerly COAC)

BankAmerica Card changed its name to Visa, Mastercharge to Mastercard, and Girard Bank is now Mellon Bank. What are the reasons for these name changes? Only those managers know for sure, but one might surmise they were made to more accurately identify and express who they are and what they are about.

The Coalition of Aided Congregations has changed its name to the Diocesan Coalition for Mission and Ministry (DCMM). It is hoped that this change will more accurately convey to the Diocesan family who we are and what we are about — A Diocesan organization of missions and aided congregations involved in Christ's mission and ministry.

What is the Coalition, who are the members, and what does it do?

Up until approximately 13 years ago, missions and aided parishes were supervised and personally administered by either the Bishop or his designee — an Archdeacon. However, when Bishop Ogilby became Assisting Bishop and was assigned the responsibility for missions and aided parishes, he decided to handle the administration of these congregations differently. Hence, he organized the missions and aided parishes into a coalition. It was called Coalition 28, representing the number of congregations in the coalition. However, the number kept changing and therefore it was decided to call the organization the Coalition of Aided Congregations, rather than continually change the number. Instead of having someone manage and direct these congregations, they manage and direct their own affairs, within specific guidelines and criteria. The name remained COAC until early 1984.

One of the purposes of the Coalition is to group missions and aided congregations into a single unit. These congregations have much in common and often have similar challenges and opportunities. By being together, they can share concerns, solutions, resources, and be mutually supportive to one another.

COAC had a 15 member taskforce elected by representatives from the various member congregations at the Annual Assembly. The taskforce was responsible for its organization, structure, and function. The Coalition received and continues to receive a block grant from the Diocesan budget which is allocated to member congregations based on stated needs and in accordance with a new set of guidelines and accountabilities. The Coalition also recommends to member congregations, from time to time, certain procedures and strategies for congregational development. It has worked relatively well over the years, not of course without its ups and downs. We believe the time has come for some changes — and we began by developing new guidelines for making grants to congregations, and changing the name. This is to reflect more nearly who we are and what we are called to do. The Coalition will no longer have an elected taskforce and has opted for extending to all Coalition congregations a voice and vote in its life and work. Hence, all congregations are now entitled to one clergy and one lay representative, chosen by them, to the coalition. In addition, the time has come for the Diocesan family to share not only in the financial support, but in the governance and life of these congregations and become partners-in-mission. All members of the Diocesan family are encouraged and invited to visit our congregations and get involved, and to attend the monthly meetings of the Coalition on the second Saturday of each month at the Church of the Saviour from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon.

These meetings are divided into three parts: 1) Devotion and Bible Study, 2) Business Session, and 3) Mission, Strategy, Service. There is an Annual Assembly each December to celebrate our common life and mission.

Presently there are 32 congregations in the Coalition, but only 20 congregations make application for and receive grants from the Diocese.

It was Shakespeare who asked, "What's in a name"? Well, a name should identify a person or organization, convey something about what it is and does. It is the intention of DCMM to accomplish just that by saying that we are a Diocesan group involved in mission and ministry.

The Coalition is an integral member of the Diocesan family — not a stepchild or side show. The congregations in the Coalition are an expression of the mission of the Diocese in their communities and neighborhoods. Some of the congregations in the Coalition are missions, others have had full parish status, but because of sociological or economic changes in the neighborhood or community, become aided congregations. Many of these congregations are however being revitalized and are involved in effective ministries of witness, service, and evangelism. Many of these congregations have as their main goal the resumption of parish status. But, these congregations are small in numbers, poor, and financially burdened with large costly buildings to maintain. And yet, in these congregations the Gospel is preached, the sacraments are administered and celebrated, and a full range of pastoral ministries are offered. They are excellent stewards of Diocesan resources and worthy ambassadors of Christ and the Diocese.

TO: DEPUTIES TO THE 201st DIOCESAN CONVENTION

FROM: THE RT. REV. LYMAN C. OGILBY

RE: BISHOP'S STAFF, AS PROVIDED FOR IN THE 1984 DIOCESAN PROGRAM BUDGET

I. SUPPORT FOR THE OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

This language describes the work carried out by myself and members of my Staff associated most closely with the Office of Diocesan Bishop. I will have visited some 85 congregations; ordained, received and confirmed a good number of persons, and carried out a broad range of board, committee/commission and agency responsibilities. My basic salary for 1984, including housing, is $62,000; expenses, pension and medical and life insurance are in addition to this. Jacquelyn Wallace is the Secretary to the Bishop; she is assisted by Cylinda N. Womack.

Constance Medaugh continues to provide good service as Associate Registrar. In addition, she is Assistant to the Secretary of Convention, and edits the Diocesan Journal. She manages the Diocesan Directory.

Compensation, pension and social security costs for these three members of the support staff (Wallace, Womack and Medaugh) in 1984 is $57,640.

The Rt. Rev. J. Brooke Mosley continues to share in the visitation and confirmation schedule, and to attend weekly meetings of the Staff. His compensation is on a per diem basis, and $5,000 has been reserved for this purpose in 1984.

A new and welcome addition to the Staff in 1983 was the Rev. Franklin D. Turner, who came to us after 12 years on the staff of the National Executive Council. I have appointed Father Turner as Chairman of the Diocesan Coalition for Mission and Ministry, formerly known as the Coalition of Aided Congregations. Frank serves as the Staff Executive for Congregations, and in that capacity is Staff liaison to the Fairmount and South Philadelphia Teams and Apostolado Hispano. He also provides staff services to the monthly meeting of the Bishop and Deans. Father Turner's basic salary for 1984 is $33,600; expenses and pension are in addition to this figure. Secretarial assistance is provided by Theresa Powick.

Management of the Applicants, Postulants and Candidates process was supplied by the Rev. Ronald L. Reed for the first eight months of 1984, and by the Rev. E. Clifford Cutler during the remainder. While we miss Ron's competance greatly, I am confident that the quality of his guidance will be well matched by Cliff, who works in Church House one day per week. 1984 monies set aside for this purpose was $ 6,760. Cylinda Womack assists him in these responsibilities.

George H. Soule continues his ministry of the stewardship of ordained persons by providing intensive career guidance and counselling to clergy on my behalf. He is particularly helpful to congregations and vestries as they seek to move through vacancy periods, and the calling process. His salary for 1984 is $33,600; insurance, pension and social security are in addition to this amount. Ruth Hopkins assists Mr. Soule in the carrying out of his responsibilities.

II. ADMINISTRATIVE SUPPORT

Peter Wilmerding continues to provide leadership in this area. As Controller, he bears primary responsibility for administrative affairs, as well as the management of and operation of the Diocesan Office. He is Staff to the Finance and Property Committee of Diocesan Council, and the Bishop's Revolving Loan Fund Committee, and contributes to the deliberations of various committees and commissions, including Clergy Salaries and Pensions. The Treasurer's Office, headed by Mr. Philip C. Howse, the elected Treasurer of the Diocese, is also managed by Peter. His annual salary for 1984, without expenses, pension and insurance is $32,100.

Florence Brook provides secretarial assistance to Mr. Wilmerding. Detailing, accounting, bookkeeping and insurance services in the Treasurer's Office are provided by Patricia Carney, Theresa Powick and Betty Jo West. The cost of these secretarial and supportive services in 1984 is $62,240.

Receptionist duties have been carried out by Gerianne Rycharski. Printing and mailing are managed by Betty Jo West. Cost of these services is $21,990 for 1984.

PROFESSIONAL SUPPORT FOR PROGRAM

All members of the Bishop's Staff provide ongoing support and assistance to the programs and agencies of the diocese. Their representatives are assigned by me.

The Rev. Van S. Bird, who has served half-time for 12 years as the member of the staff responsible for Social Concerns, resigned in October. While we wish Van all the best in his new and diverse ministries, we miss his contribution greatly. His input on all matters of public and social issues was most valuable to me.

The Rev. Paul M. Washington continues as the Staff person for Urban Concerns, which is a part-time position. He is also Rector of the Church of the Advocate in North Philadelphia. He advises the Bishop and Staff on matters related to our urban ministry, and represents me and this diocese in many activities and responsibilities throughout the City of Philadelphia. Compensation for his staff activity in 1984 is $14,400.

Janice M. Duncan, member of the Staff for Planning and Program Development, continues her responsibility for the program-budget building process with the Program Budget Committee of Diocesan Council. She continues her involvement with ongoing programmatic areas of diocesan mission such as hunger, world relief, and refugees, as well as participation in the design and creation of developing ministries and processes. She acts as staff to the Strategy Committee of Diocesan Council, and assists in the planning for the Diocesan Convention, as well as being instrumental in planning both the process and content of the annual Fall Deanery Vestry Meetings. Her salary for 1984 is $24,850; expenses, insurance and pension are in addition to this amount. She is assisted in these ministries by Joy Schwab.

William Paddock continues his ministry as the Director of the Renewal, Evangelization and Church Growth Office of the diocese. In this capacity, he brings to the congregations considerable experience in techniques and attitudes which stimulate congregational renewal and development. He provides staff support to the Diocesan Commission on Racism. Bill's work is supported in part by a grant from Venture In Mission, and in part from the diocesan Budget. His salary for 1984 was $33,600. He is supported in his work by Margaret K. Ornell.

George H. Soule, in addition to his work in deployment, has primary responsibility for public relations. He also serves as Staff to the Commission on Ministry, the Action Committee of Diocesan Council, and provides support to other program committees as assigned.

Betty L. Creamer came to this diocese late in 1982 to provide focus and direction for the Diocesan Youth Ministry. Working specifically to enrich the experience of the persons in the congregations who work with youth, she has been particularly successful in opening St. Timothy's Center, an overnight facility for young people on the grounds of St. Paul's Church in Elkins Park. Betty's salary for 1984 is $19,150.

Marie Lennan assists Frank Turner as Coordinator of the Diocesan Commission on Mission and Ministry. She is Staff liaison to committees working on peace and nuclear issues. Nancy S. Ritter, Secretary to Diocesan Council and Convention, follows many years of faithful and competant service of Gene Day, who resigned this year. Both Marie and Nancy attend Staff meetings; both receive a very modest remuneration for their services.

Karey B. Smith, President of the Episcopal Churchwomen, is also a member of the Staff, participating fully in meetings of Staff and Diocesan Council. She is non-salaried. Doris Connor, Executive Secretary of the ECW, assists Mrs. Smith, and is paid by the Churchwomen.

Bette Forrester continues to serve as a Staff assistant for Special Projects. She has particular responsibility for the ongoing work of the Family Life Committee, as well as the Ecumenical Commission, and the Diocesan Committee on Women Trapped in the Poverty Cycle. Compensation for her time and expenses is provided as required.

Major support services for the Program and Planning responsibilities of the Staff are provided by Joy Schwab, Ruth Hopkins and Margaret Ornell. Total compensation for these people is $51,830.

RE-4: CLERGY DEPLOYMENT 1983-1984

Deployment activity has remained at about the same annual level for nine years. For the first time in more than a decade, more senior clergy positions were filled from outside the Diocese than from within during the past 12 months. This was offset slightly by an increasing number of staff clergy positions being filled from within the Diocese by local clergy or new ordinands.

Age distribution is moving upward slightly.

Particular attention is being given to improvement in parish self-study processes preparatory to calling a rector, and to the development aspects of the interim period between rectors. The annual Conference for Clergy in New Ministries continues to be well-attended and highly valued.

A new paper on Diocesan deployment procedures was prepared this year and is available on request.

RE-6: COMMISSION ON CLERGY SALARIES AND PENSIONS

The Clergy Salaries and Pensions Commission was established by Convention in 1968. It fulfills a unique role in the Church; both in its jurisdiction and its right to address Convention directly. The mandate of the Commission has evolved (both by canon and informally by Council and Convention) so that it now performs four major tasks:

* Since 1978 it has assisted (primarily financially) in the relocation of clergy who have severed relationships with a parish.
* The Commission establishes annual guidelines for appropriate ranges of remuneration for parish clergy. Such guidelines are also useful to institutions within the Diocese which employ clergy.
* The Commission offers policy advice for various constituencies in the area of employee benefits and clergy perquisites. This task is constantly reviewed by the Commission to ensure that it remains consistent with the general market place of not-for-profit institutions.
* Review of pension premiums for life insurance and pension assessments; particularly those of clergy in transition and of parishes facing financial emergency.

The Commission has pursued these tasks during the year under review and reports the following:

Clergy Pensions

The Commission has been diligent in obtaining regular and current data concerning clergy pensions and has alerted parishes where there was an inexplicable delinquency. In some cases the year under review the Commission has paid up the pension arrearages to ensure that dependent(s) were not jeopardized. The Commission would like all parishes to note that the payment of salary, pension assessments and insurances are a "first call" upon the parish budget and should not be withheld in order to pay other bills.

Because of the intensive work of this last year the Commission can report that all pensions are up-to-date.

Clergy Relocation Assistance

During the year under review several clergy were assisted financially during relocation periods. Each case is handled on its merits and the Commission is guided by a subcommittee chaired by Marie Lennon. Procedures for assessing needs and opportunities were set in place during 1982-83 and appear to be working well. This aspect of the Commission's work is a witness to a caring ministry for which the whole Diocese should feel justifiably proud.

Salary Administration

The Commission continues to monitor salary trends in the not-for-profit sector of the economy. The gradings established in 1982-83 seem to provide a satisfactory guideline for most parishes. Disputed gradings of the Commission have been dealt with on a case by case basis. The Commission will present a resolution to Convention for the 1985 salary ranges and reaffirms its policy: The mid-point of those ranges should be the remuneration received by "a thoroughly competent incumbent of significant tenure." The Commission is always available to assist clergy or parishes where there is difficulty in defining that qualification.

Administrative Processes

George Soule, the Bishop's staff member for Clergy Deployment and Peter Wilmerding, the Diocesan Comptroller, continue to assist the Commission in the administration of its affairs. The Rev. Louis Temme and the Rev. Edgar Adams are currently writing and testing a computer program which will greatly assist the Commission in monitoring the statistical data from Parochial Reports to ensure early warning of possible difficulties. Dr. Sadie Mitchell is working on a manual which will be available to all new Commission members and to any other interested parties.

Conclusion

After a number of years of service on the Commission and, this year, acting as vice-chairman, I can assure the Convention that its mandates are being faithfully executed and that the ministry expressed through the Commission is greatly appreciated.

Vice-Chairman

APPENDIX #33:

THE BISHOP'S DIOCESAN COMMITTEE ON FAMILY LIFE MINISTRY

1984 DIOCESAN CONVENTION REPORT

The Very Rev. Hugh Dickinson, Chair
Mrs. John W. Forrester, Bishop's Staff

In keeping with the Diocesan Bicentennial Theme: (REJOICE! REVIEW! RENEW!) Parish Families were invited to participate in a very special Bicentennial Celebration "Episc-Zoo-Palian Day" to:

Meet "Mary's newly named Donkey"! !
Tour the Zoo with an expert Guide ! !
Blow out the 200 candles on the Birthday Cake! !
Celebrate with Family and Friends! !

More than 800 Episcopalians of all ages, sizes and hues came to the Historic Philadelphia Zoo for the celebration on a cool, clear spring Saturday.

The day became a living Bible Story lesson as the families made acquaintance with animals whose ancestors had been a part of Noah's Ark.

Everyone met "Mary's Donkey" and saw him receive his new name Christopher which means "Christ Bearer", and become adopted by Family Life Ministry for a year (supplying his food).

The real highlight of Episc-Zoo-Palian Day was the Bicentennial Birthday Party with a cake with 200 candles and lots of ice cream. After which the families went to their homes throughout the Diocese, with happy memories and a renewed feeling of togetherness.

Family Life Ministry, in continuing its task of developing and reinforcing ways the church can minister to families in our changing society, has emphasized the ministry of family enrichment with Episc-Zoo-Palian Day.

On December 1 "An Umbrella Conference" All About Families, featuring the following workshops on Pressing Family Concerns, is scheduled:

Alcoholism and Drugs
Spiritual Growth
Death and Dying
Cults and Youth
Responsible Parenthood and Teen Age Pregnancy
Marriage vs "Live-ins"
Aging

The Workshop Leaders will be members of our Diocesan Community who will share a personal ministry to help workshop participants extend their ministry in their families and parishes.

APPENDIX #34:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CONSTITUTION AND CANONS

The Committee on Constitution and Canons of the Diocese of Pennsylvania submits the following report to the 201st Convention:

1. Standing Committee President: Amendment to Constitution Article VIII

The following Resolution, which was approved by the 200th Diocesan Convention, is submitted to the 201st Convention in accordance with Article X of the Diocesan Constitution for final approval:

BE IT RESOLVED that the second sentence of Art. VIII of the Constitution of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania be amended to read as follows:

> At their first meeting, they shall elect one of their members to be President, and another of their members to be Secretary.

Explanation:

The present second sentence of Art. VIII reads as follows:

> At their first meeting, they shall elect one of their Clerical members to be President, and another of their members to be Secretary.

The effect of this proposed amendment would be to remove the requirement that the President of the Diocesan Standing Committee be a member of the Clergy.

As reported at the 200th Convention, the Committee on Constitution and Canons finds no conflict between this proposed amendment and any of the other provisions of the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese of Pennsylvania or the U. S. Episcopal Church.

2. Parish Assessments and Voluntary Giving: Amendments to Canons 6.2.4.2, 7.2 and 7.3

In the material circulated to deputies is a Resolution for amendments to Canons 6.2.4.2, 7.2 and 7.3, as well as a Resolution changing the term "Convention Assessment" in Canon 2.5 and wherever else it may appear in the Canons of the Diocese. Also circulated is an explanation of the proposed amendments as prepared and submitted by the Committee on Finance and Property.

The Committee on Constitution and Canons finds no conflict between this proposed amendment and any of the other provisions of the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese of Pennsylvania or the U. S. Episcopal Church.

Respectfully submitted,

David C. Auten

David C. Auten, Chair
Committee on Constitutions and Canons

Amendments to Canons 6.2.4.2, 7.2 and 7.3

BE IT RESOLVED, that the 201st Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania amends Section 6.2.4.2 of Canon 6 and Sections 7.2 and 7.3 of Canon 7 of the Diocese to read as follows:

6.2.4.2 Provide for the fixing of the total amount and proportionate shares of the annual Convention Expense Assessment and of appropriate shares for the missionary, educational, social service, financial, promotional and other responsibilities of the Diocese.

SEC. 7.2 Assessment for the Support of the Episcopate and Convention Expense

7.2.1. The Standing Committee shall determine, on or before the first of May each year, the amount needed for the support of the Episcopate in the Diocese during the ensuing calendar year, in accordance with the standing directions of the Convention, and, after deducting therefrom the estimated income to be received from investments, shall report the balance to the Diocesan Council as the amount to be assessed upon the Parishes, Missions, and Chapels of the Diocese in such relation to their General Purpose Income as the Convention shall from time to time direct, and in the absence of any such direction in any year, in the manner last directed by the Convention.

7.2.2. General Purpose Income shall be taken to consist of such items as are grouped thereunder in the forms of Parochial Reports put forth from time to time by authority of General Convention.

7.2.3. Income from the Fund for the Endowment of the Episcopate or from any other Fund for that purpose shall be added to the proceeds of the above Assessment, and payments out of the combined total shall be made by order of the Bishop and the Standing Committee, or in the absence or disability of the Bishop, by order of the Standing Committee alone.

7.2.4. In addition to its responsibility to determine annually the amount needed for the support of the Episcopate, the Standing Committee shall have authority to make special Assessments between Conventions to cover extraordinary and unanticipated expenses related to the Episcopate, such as the expenses of a Special Convention called pursuant to Article III of the Constitution of the Diocese. The amount to be specially assessed upon Parishes, Missions and Chapels shall be determined in relation to their General Purpose Income in the same manner as their regular annual Assessment for the support of the Episcopate, and the amount specially assessed shall be payable when and as determined by the Standing Committee.

7.2.5 The Diocesan Council shall, before November 1st of each year, determine the sum sufficient in the aggregate to pay all the expenses connected with the Convention, including the publishing of the Journal. This sum shall be known as "The Convention Expense Assessment," and shall be assessed upon the parishes in union with the Convention, and upon such Missions as have a right to a vote in the Convention, in the same manner as is above provided for in the case of the Assessment for the Support of the Episcopate. Payments out of the proceeds of the Assessment for Convention Expense shall be authorized by the Diocesan Council for the purposes set forth.

SEC. 7.3 Support of the Diocesan Program Budget

7.3.1. Except in the matter of the Assessment for the Support of the Episcopate and Convention Expense, voluntary giving as an extension of individual stewardship shall be the prime manner by which the congregations support all aspects of Diocesan expenses. To this end ten percent (10%) of General Purpose Income is established as the minimum support which each Parish, Mission or Chapel shall contribute each year for the support of Diocesan expenses. The amount of the Assessment for the Support of the Episcopate and Convention Expense and voluntary giving shall be added together in determining whether the minimum support standard has been met.

7.3.2. The amounts needed for the Support of the Episcopate, for Convention and Diocesan Expense, and for the funding of all other requirements of the Diocesan Program Budget as adopted by the Convention shall be met by application of the Assessment upon each of the parishes, missions and chapels in the Diocese and of the proceeds of the voluntary giving of such parishes, missions, and chapels, together with such resources as may be available to the Diocese from endowments and other sources. To the extent that such Assessment, proceeds of voluntary giving and other resources differ significantly from the estimate thereof approved by the Convention in the Diocesan Program Budget, the Diocesan Council may make such amendments to the Program budget as it deems appropriate.

BE IT RESOLVED, FURTHER, that the 201st Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania amends the term "Convention and Diocesan Expense Assessment" to read "Convention Expense Assessment" in Section 2.5 of Canon 2 and wherever else it may appear in the Canons of the Diocese.

Explanation:

The 200th Convention of the Diocese passed the following Resolution (numbered R-12) relating to possible amendment of the Canons of the Diocese relating to the assessment:

RESOLVED, that this 200th Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania directs the Diocesan Council, through its Committee on Finance and Property, or such other group as the Bishop may appoint, to (1) review the procedures and canonical provisions for funding the Diocesan Program Budget (including Canons 7.2, 7.3, and 7.4 relating to the assessments for the support of the Episcopate and Convention and Diocesan Expense); (2) report to the 201st Convention on the results of such review; and, (3) prepare and submit to the 201st Convention for action any amendments to the Constitution or Canons of the Diocese that may be indicated as a result of such review in order to strengthen or otherwise improve procedures for funding the Diocesan Program Budget.

FURTHER RESOLVED, that this 200th Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania substitutes the foregoing Resolution in place of the Resolution adopted by the 199th Convention which directed Diocesan Council to prepare amendments to Canons 7.2, 7.3, and 7.4 for submission to the 200th Convention.

At the request of Diocesan Council, a Special Committee, chaired by Council member W. Cecil Stricklin, was appointed by the Bishop to make recommendations responsive to Resolution R-12. The Special Committee submitted its report to Council in March 1984 and its report was approved by Council. The recommendations in the report were as follows:

(1) VOLUNTARY GIVING AS AN EXTENSION OF INDIVIDUAL STEWARDSHIP SHALL BE THE PRIME MANER BY WHICH THE CONGREGATIONS SUPPORT ALL ASPECTS OF DIOCESAN EXPENSES. EACH PARISH IS CALLED UPON TO GIVE THE MAXIMUM POSSIBLE FOR WORK OUTSIDE OF THE CONGREGATION (WITH THE EMPHASIS BEING FOR DIOCESAN MINISTRIES) IN RECOGNITION THAT MAXIMUM GIVING IS CALLED FOR TO RETURN THOSE GIFTS WHICH HAVE BEEN GIVEN TO THE CONGREGATIONS, INDIVIDUALLY AND COLLECTIVELY. THE CANON WILL ESTABLISH 10% OF THE GENERAL PURPOSE INCOME AS THE MINIMUM STANDARD FOR EACH PARISH TO GIVE ANNUALLY TO THE DIOCESE.

(2) TO MEET THE CONSTITUTIONAL REQUIREMENT FOR AN ASSESSMENT, THE CANON WILL REQUIRE THAT EACH PARISH MEET A MINIMUM ASSESSMENT TO SUPPORT THE COST OF THE EPISCOPATE AS CURRENTLY SET BY THE STANDING COMMITTEE. EACH CONGREGATION WILL BE ASSESSED A PRORATION OF THE COST OF THE EPISCOPATE EQUAL TO THE PERCENTAGE EQUIVALENT OF THEIR GENERAL PURPOSE INCOME TO THE TOTAL OF THE GENERAL PURPOSE INCOMES FOR ALL OF THE CONGREGATIONS OF THE DIOCESE.

(3) THE CANON SHOULD CONTAIN PROVISION FOR MAKING SPECIAL, ONE-TIME ASSESSMENTS IN UNUSUAL CIRCUMSTANCES BETWEEN CONVENTIONS. THE CALLING OF AN EMERGENCY INTERIM CONVENTION IS AN EXAMPLE OF AN UNUSUAL CIRCUMSTANCE. AUTHORIZATION FOR MAKING ASSESSMENTS IN SUCH EXTRAORDINARY CIRCUMSTANCES WOULD BE GIVEN TO THE STANDING COMMITTEE WITH THE CANON PROVIDING THAT THE ASSESSMENT WOULD BE MADE USING THE SAME FORMULA AS FOR THE EPISCOPATE ASSESSMENT.

(4) DIOCESAN COUNCIL AND THE BISHOP SHOULD REQUEST THE CHANCELLOR (OR APPOINT A LEGAL COMMITTEE) TO REWORD APPROPRIATELY CANON 7 TO EMBODY THE THREE PRECEDING RECOMMENDATIONS AND THAT CANONS 7.4.1 AND 7.4.2 BE UNCHANGED, AND PROVIDE THE REVISED CANONS TO COUNCIL AT ITS NEXT MEETING.

The proposed amendments to the Canons set forth above were prepared in order to give effect to the foregoing recommendations. At its June 1984 meeting Diocesan Council approved the proposed amendments for submission to the 201st Convention of the Diocese for adoption. These amendments have been reviewed and approved by the Committee on Constitution and Canons.

201ST ANNUAL CONVENTION, RECONVENED
CHURCH OF THE SAVIOUR
3723 CHESTNUT STREET
PHILADELPHIA, PENNSYLVANIA

September 28, 1985

The 201st Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Diocese of Pennsylvania was reconvened on Saturday, September 28, 1985 at the Church of the Saviour, 3723 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

The Rt. Rev. Lyman C. Ogilby, Bishop of Pennsylvania and President of the Convention, opened the meeting with prayer at 10:00 a.m., following the service of Holy Communion.

The Secretary of Convention, Nancy S. Ritter, certified that the Presiding Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America had received the necessary consents from the House of Bishops and the Standing Committees of the several dioceses to the election of a Bishop at the session held on Saturday, September 28, 1985. Accordingly, the Secretary declared that the reconvened 201st Convention was free to proceed with the election of a Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

The Secretary then read Article IX of the Constitution of the Diocese of Pennsylvania regarding the election:

> "The election of a Bishop, Bishop Coadjutor or Bishop Suffragan shall be made in Convention in the following manner. The Clergy and Laity shall ballot separately, and a concurrent majority of both Orders shall be necessary to a choice. Provided, that if less than two-thirds of either Order entitled to seats and votes be present then two-thirds of the votes of that Order shall be necessary to determine the choice of such Order.
> "And Provided Further, That the necessary quorum for the election shall consist of not less than one-half of the Clergy and Laity representations respectively entitled to seats and votes in Convention."

The Registrar reported a registration of 209 out of 360 clergy and 165 out of 170 parishes. The Chancellor, William White, ruled that a vote of two-thirds of the votes of the clergy would be necessary for election. He further opined that (a) any clergyperson who had been canonically resident within the diocese for more than six (6) months and (b) any clergyperson who had been physically present within the diocese, but not canonically resident, for six (6) months, was entitled to a seat, voice and vote. This was moved and passed.

Dr. John Norton, member of the Committee on Claims of Laity to Seats, recommended that Emmanuel Church, Kensington be entitled to seats and vote. This was moved and passed.

There was a motion to accept the agenda. An amendment that no nominating speeches be given for the six candidates who were presented on September 21, 1985, was defeated.

The Rev. Vernon A. Austin, Jr. moved and it was passed that since it was necessary to have a 2/3 vote of the clergy, the registration be opened for fifteen minutes.
